This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PREFACE.

Of Graduates and of Officers, only meagre and broken records are preserved in the archives of the Scottish Universities. Such works as Anthony à Wood's Athenae and Fasti Oxonienses, Boase's Register of the University of Oxford, Foster's Alumni Oxonienses, Cooper's Athenae Cantabrigienses, Luard's Graduati Cantabrigienses, etc., the Scottish academic annalist need not attempt to rival, either in completeness or in detail. Nor—apart from the adoption of some system analogous to the admirable Quinquennial Catalogue of the older American Colleges—does it seem possible for our Universities to accumulate material adequate to the needs of the future historian.

Even such lists of names as are extant have hitherto been made public only to a very limited extent. Appendices added by Professor Andrew Duncan to Professor Thomas Crawfurd's History of the University of Edinburgh (Edinb., 1808-21) give the Register of Graduates in Medicine, 1705-1821. This list is continued to 1845 in Nomina eorum qui Gradum Medicinae Doctoris in Acad. Jac. VI. Scot. Regis, quae Edinb. est, adepti sunt (Edinb., 1846); and to 1866 in a List of the Graduates in Medicine of the University of Edinburgh (Edinb., 1867). In 1858 Mr. David Laing edited for the Bannatyne Club a Catalogue of Graduates in the Faculties of Arts, Divinity, and Law at the University of Edinburgh since its Foundation. An Alphabetical List of the Graduates of the University of Edinburgh from 1859 to 1888, compiled by Mr. Thomas Gilbert, Registrar of the University, carries the record down to the date of issue. In this connection may be noted two contributions to the literature of the Tercentenary Celebrations of the same University in 1884: the Viri Illustres of Professor Patrick Geddes, and the Quasi Cursores of Mr. William Hole.

The third volume of the Munimenta Alme Universitatis Glasguensis, edited in 1854 for the Maitland Club by Mr. Cosmo Innes and Mr. Joseph Robertson, contains lists of Masters of Arts of the University of Glasgow for the periods 1578-1695 and 1707-27. The present Assistant Registrar, Mr. Innes Addison, has compiled a MS. Catalogue of all Graduates, honorary and ordinary, from 1728 to 1890; and it is understood that the propriety of printing this is under consideration.

No part of the Records of the University of St. Andrews has as yet been published.

As regards the Universities of Aberdeen, the Fasti Aberdonenses, edited in 1854 by Mr. Cosmo Innes, and presented to the original Spalding Club by its President the fourth Earl of Aberdeen, includes a transcript of the list of Masters of Arts of University and King's College for the period 1600-86. It has been thought no unfitting task for the New Spalding Club to complete the work begun under the auspices of the parent Society, and to herald the approaching Quatercentenary of the older Aberdeen University by the issue of a volume containing a Record, as exhaustive as it is now possible to compile, of the Officers and Graduates of King's College, down to the date when it ceased to exist as a separate corporation, being merged, with Marischal College and University, in the University of Aberdeen. The Fasti Academiae Mariscallanae, of which the first portion appeared in 1889, will in its second volume contain a like Record for Marischal College, 1593-1860.

The archives of the University have, in the freest manner, been placed at the service of the Editor. Appended is an Inventory of the Manuscripts (chiefly in the Library or the Muniment Room at King's College) with which he has made himself familiar, and on which he has almost exclusively depended for the details (other than those in footnotes) printed in this volume.

To many of the names printed in this volume are appended notes, as far condensed as is consistent with intelligibility, giving clues to the identity of the individuals. The lists owe much of their accuracy to two classfellows and friends of the Editor—Mr. David Craib and the Rev. Stephen Ree—who have ungrudgingly spent time and trouble in identifying individuals and collating different authorities. The bulky index is the work of Miss Margaret Craig, by whom also many of the original MS. lists have been transcribed.

The frontispiece by which the volume is adorned is from the brush of Sir George Reid, P.R.S.A., not now for the first time employed to benefit the Club and the University. The portrait of Pope Alexander VI. was specially photographed by Signor Giacomo Brogi, Florence. The use of the steel plate of King's College in 1822 has been courteously granted by Messrs. D. Wyllie & Son.

The Editor has especial pleasure in expressing deep indebtedness to Principal Sir William D. Geddes, whose knowledge of academic history has been freely drawn upon, and whose regard for the interests, not less of the Club than of the University, induced him to undertake the irksome task of revising all the proof-sheets of the book. To the Principal alone—his old Teacher, not of Greek only—the Editor is willing to yield in attachment to that College with which they have been so long associated—

Linked to the story and aim of the Crown,
Bound by unbreakable tie.

RECTORS.[1]

1498. Mr. Andrew Lyell.

"Thesaurarius noster." Elphinstone's Confirmation of the King's grant of the patronage of Slains. (King's Coll. Muniment Room, Old Chest, i. 1.)

1501.[2] Mr. Andrew Liell.

Elphinstone's publication of two Bulls by Pope Alexander VI. (O. C., xliii. 8.)

[1] No directions as to the method of electing the Rector are to be found in Pope Alexander VI.'s Bull of Erection of $149\frac{4}{5}$, in Bishop Elphinstone's Foundation of 1505, or in Bishop Dunbar's Confirmation of 1531: such being apparently regarded as part of the common law of Universities (v. "Stellung des Rectors innerhalb der Universität" in Denifle, pp. 106-132, 181-192). In Dunbar's Charter four "procuratores nationum" appear among the electors of the principal, canonist, civilist, mediciner, subprincipal and grammarian: but the nations are not defined. The Rector is enjoined to hold an annual Visitation of the College "cum consilio et avisamento quatuor proborum virorum magistrorum dicte Universitatis a dicta Universitate eligendorum"; the origin of the Rector's Assessors.

According to the "Nova Fundatio" (see Appendix II.) "Rector . . . eligatur per omnes Academiae suppositos in quatuor nationes ita ut Aberdoniae dioecesis propter frequentiorem numerum in duas nationes secetur, Marrensem et Buchanensem, Marriae Gariocha adjungatur, quod superest a Doverna amni Buchaniae cedat; reliquum regni quod ad septentrionem montis Grampii est, Moraviensis nationis nomine contineatur; ultra montem Grampium ad austrum vergens Angusiensis natio vocatur. Harum nationum singuli sint Procuratores, qui Rectorem ejusque Assessores eligant." In the first extant account of the election of a Rector (30th June, 1634) it will be seen that the Nations are styled Aberdeen (which becomes Mar in 1640), Angus, Moray, Lothian; but the Procurators seem to be elected by the Masters (16th November, 1640). The boundaries of the Nations are given in Middleton's Appendix to Spotswood (1677), which contains the earliest detailed description of the Aberdeen Universities. Aberdeen included the shires of Aberdeen and Banff; Angus, those of Angus and Mearns; Moray, all north of the Spey; Lothian, the rest of Scotland. Cf. election of 1856.

[2] In the list of Rectors given in Fasti Aberd., p. lxxvi., is found the name of Mr. William Strathauchin, under date 1499. The sole authority for this entry seems to be a marginal note ("Mr. Gul. Strathachin 1mus Rector et Vicarius perpetuus B. M. ad Nives") in Professor John Ker's handwriting, on p. 100 of the Parchment Chartulary. (O. C., xli. 22.) The reference is obviously to the first Rector and Vicar of the Church of S. Maria ad Nives, founded by Bishop Elphinstone, under a Bull from Pope Alexander VI. of date 20th February, $149\frac{7}{8}$. (O. C., xvii. 3, 4, 5, 6.)

Mr. Middleton's party named their four Procurators as Assessors. Mr. Burnet's party named Sir Alexander Ramsay of Balmain, Mr. Buchan of Auchmacoy, Dr. Campbell, Principal of Marischal College, and Dr. Gerard,

On 21st March, the Principal and Masters unanimously acknowledge Mr. Middleton as Rector (see under "Civilists," 25th April, 1763); and Messrs. Forbes, Wilson, Innes, and Gordon, as Assessors. On 25th April, the Rector and Assessors consider a long Report from Messrs. Forbes and Wilson, who had been appointed on 21st March a Committee "to revise the Minutes of College Meetings, and other papers that may show the usual forms of proceeding in Rectoral Visitations". (See Evidence of Commission of 1826-30, IV. 169.) The Court "find the Institution of the Rectorall Court necessary for the preservation of the College, and find that in all time comeing the annuall election of a Rector shall proceed without Procuratores Nationum chosen to join in the said election . . . and with regard to the Procuratores in general, find that previous to every election where these are entitled to vote by the Foundation of the College, their election shall not be for a year, or for any stated time, but pro re nata". This finding was approved by the Chancellor, Lord Deskford, 10th May.

By casting vote of chairman (subprincipal, with whom Sir A. Assessors: Dr. Alexander Moir of Scotstown, John Paton of Grandhome, John Ross of Mayne, and Mr. Charles Bannerman, advocate.

1801, January 3. In connection with the admission of Dr. Jack as subprincipal, Professor Ogilvie protested "that the mode of electing the Rector has been introduced by intrigue and the compromise of party interests, and tho' it may be understood to confer an honorary and titular office of a very equivocal kind, it cannot invest the person so elected with those essential powers and privileges which Bishop Elphingston meant to entrust only to a constitutional Rector chosen by the whole body of the Suppositi as in Paris. To suppose this is indeed a mockery and a travesty of the Founder's manifest intention. That under cover of this supposition the College Meetings have during the last fifty years ventured on various proceedings in the management of the College Estate, and in the concerns of the Bursars, which no Rector chosen by the Suppositi would have suffered to pass unrescinded. That therefore the present mode of Election ought to be annulled, and that genuine constitution of the University, to which alone the provisions of the Foundation Charter of King's College refer, or can be applied, ought to be restored." This protest seems to have had no adherents.

"October 29, 1816.

"Convened—The Principal, Dr. Dauney, Dr. Macpherson, Mr. Bentley, Mr. Paul and Mr. Macpherson.

"The members . . . taking into consideration that this is the day appointed for the election of Rector and Assessors . . . and David Cromar having been sent to Dr. Jack's house for the minute book, Dr. Jack called out Dr. Dauney into the adjoining room, and the remaining members after waiting for a considerable time were informed by David Cromar on his return that the Principal desired him to say that there was no meeting. Thereafter the members to whom this was intimated, having taken into consideration that a meeting regularly convened for the despatch of important business at which they had intromitted with the mortification funds to a considerable extent, and at which they had annually for many years exercised their rights of election in the appointment of Rector and Assessors, could not be dissolved by such a proceeding as had just been had recourse to without a regular record of the res gestae, they unanimously called Dr. Macpherson as senior member to the chair, and drew up this minute, at the same time declining to proceed for the present in the elections for which they were legally convened, as being unwilling to involve the respectable gentlemen who might be proposed, in the disputes of the society.

(Signed) "Hugh Macpherson, Praeses."

"November 16, 1816.

"Convened—The Principal, Professor Ogilvie, Dr. Dauney and Dr. Bannerman, in consequence of a notice officially intimated to all concerned from the Principal fixing this day for the election of a Rector and Assessors: the nomination of the present office-bearers expiring on the eighteenth current. The Principal and professors above named attended in the meeting-room at twelve o'clock the hour appointed; but altho' the College servant was sent by the Principal to the other resident professors, requiring their immediate attendance, none of them thought proper to make their appearance, or so much as to return an answer. The Principal and professors who attended having waited till half-an-hour after one o'clock, and there being no prospect of the attendance of any other member, those present in place of proceeding to a regular election were of opinion that all circumstances considered it was most expedient to declare it to be their understanding that the Lord Rector and Assessors now in office shall be requested to continue their functions for the ensuing year, and the Principal was authorised to intimate this resolution to the gentlemen concerned accordingly.

(Signed) "William Jack, Principal."

Elected for four years by the Graduates. At a conference held on 6th April, 1856, between the Senatus and a deputation of the Graduates of the University, an agreement was entered into in conformity with a scheme adopted by the Senatus on 20th April, 1855, and sanctioned by the Chancellor, to the effect that in future the Lord Rector, two of the four Assessors, and the four Procuratores Nationum should be chosen by the Masters of Arts of the University (not holding mere honorary degrees), and that the Senatus should confirm the election so made. It was further agreed that Graduates should keep their names on the Register of the University by annual payment of 2s. 6d., or by a single life payment of £1 1s.; and should meet every two years for the election of University Officers; voting to be by voting papers, per capita for the Rector and Assessors, per nationes for the Procurators. The limits of the Nations were fixed thus:—

Moray = the Synod of Moray.

Mar = the Synod of Aberdeen north of the Dee.

Angus = the Synods of Aberdeen south of the Dee, Angus and Mearns, Stirling and Perth, and Fife.

Lothian = the rest of the world.

[1] 1849, November 24. Resolved by a majority "that in conformity with a practice long current in the University, but which has recently been departed from, in the event of a vacancy taking place in the office of Lord Rector or Assessor to the Lord Rector, the election shall be made annually as at present, but that the period of office shall be limited to two years only".

1857, May 2. John Inglis, Dean of the Faculty of Advocates.

PRINCIPALS.[1]

c. 1500. Mr. Hector Boece (Boyes, Bois, Boethius).

Professor Thomas Gordon writes of Boece in his MS. Collections:—

"He received his degree of Doctor in the same College after he was Principal of it [Town Council Reg., 5th Sept., 1528]. He was born in Dundee, and educated in the University of Paris. Besides his 'History of the Scots'—which is printed by Iodocus Badius at Boece's own expences, bearing a prefatory address to the nobility of Scotland by Alexander Lion, Cantor of Murray, dated at Paris, 1527, in which he calls Boece, 'communis nobis preceptor'—Boece also wrote, 'Vitae Episcoporum Aberdonensium,' dedicated to Bishop Gavin Dunbar, 20th March, 1522. Dunbar stiles him, 'Hector Boece, Principal and Licentiate in Theology'. 'Principalis Pontificalis Collegii Aberdonensis,' 5th June, 1516. He subscribes the Foundation, 10th June, 1531. As to Boece's pedigree, see Lord Hailes, Vol. II. p. 161, Note. Hector Boece says, l. 15, col. 323, 'proavus meus Hugo Boetius cujus pater ad Duplin occubuerat, Baro Drisdale'. Lord Hailes finds a Sir Humphrey de Bois in Walsing. 132, or Ford 13, 27, among the slain at the Battle of Lochmaben, 1332, and conjectures him to be Boece's ancestor, he having by mistake said Duplin for Lochmaben.

Elphinstone's Foundation of 1505.

"Erunt quatuor doctores primus videlicet in theologia quem principalem appellari volumus cui omnes in dicto collegio obedire et obedientiam prestare cum debitis honore et reverentia teneantur. . . . Hii omnes . . . sacerdotio fungi debeant. . . . Principalis collegii habeat singulis annis quadraginta marcas ad terminos consuetos solvendas. Drisdale is a territory in Annandale where Lochmaben lies, and the Drisdales are to be found. He is said to be descended of the Boettis of Panbride in Angus. In the Life of Bishop Elphingston he mentions that this prelate called him from Paris while teaching Philosophy 'in Collegio Montis acuti' (of Montague) to be the first professor of the liberal arts in his newly-instituted 'Schola generalis Aberdonensis'. Boece calls himself at that time, 'adolescens,' and modestly speaks of his own small proficiency in letters at the time he was set to instruct others. He mentions among his acquaintances at the University, Erasmus, Joannes Major, Pat. Panter, and several others. The canons of the cathedral received him with the kindest regard. At his arrival, he sent for his condisciple at Paris, William Hay, who was first Subprincipal, and in the end succeeded Boece as Principal. He gives the names of several men of letters, with their character, that were sent forth at this time from the University."

1536. Mr. William Hay.

Previously Subprincipal. "He succeeded Boethius after his death, and . . . subscribes 3rd December, 1541." Gordon, I. 19; II. 177.

154–. Mr. John Bisset.

Previously Regent. Subscribes 16th July, 1543 (Gordon, II. 179). According to Orem, "succeeded (as should appear) by a presentation from the Pope, which was expressly contrary to the Foundation. For afterwards, anno 1551, he resigned his principality into the Pope's hands in favour of Alexander Anderson, subprincipal, who (it seems) was his competitor for the place, and was ever after during the said Mr. Bisset's life, which was till about anno 1559, designed in all publick writers 'subprincipalis Collegij regalis Aberdonen. et officio principalis'."

Dunbar's Foundation of 1531. See also Nova Fundatio, in Appendix II.

Elsewhere, "continued six years and resigned his place anno 1552, because of his infirmity proceeding from long sickness". These contradictory statements are equally inaccurate. Bisset resigned the principalship into the hands of Pope Paul III., who, 26th February, $154\frac{6}{7}$, nominated William Cranston (O. C., xliii. 12); but the latter never acted. Bisset again resigned into the hands of Pope Julius III., who, 20th February, $155\frac{3}{4}$, nominated Alexander Anderson (O. C., xliii. 12).

1553. Mr. Alexander Anderson.

Previously Subprincipal: also parson of Tyrie and rector of Kinkell. "In his time fell out the Reformation, wherein together with all the masters he was deposed, anno 1569, by a visitation appointed by the General Assembly, the Earl of Murray, Regent, being personally present at the deposition. . . . He lived several years obscurely in Aberdeen after his deposition, and died there." Orem. "This man was a great scholar and a subtil disputant, but no great friend to the College. For the hatred he bare to the reformed religion, he alienated some of the College revenues, destroyed many of its writings and evidences, whereby many lands and other rents belonging to S. Germains are quite lost; sold the ornaments, books, and other furniture belonging to the College. Commendable was he in one thing; for, when some of the reformers would have taken away the lead and bells, repulit vim ferro." Middleton.

1569. Mr. Alexander Arbuthnot.

"Brother to the Baron of Arbuthnot, and parson of Arbuthnot and Logy . . . had his course of Philosophy in S. Andrews with Mr. Lawson, went to France at the age of twenty-three years, where he applied to the study of Law under Cujacius, and, being made Licentiate, returned to Scotland, 1566, in order to follow it as a calling, but God otherwise disposing, in 1569 he was made Principal of the College of Aberdeen, where by his diligent teaching and good government he revived learning, and gained many over from superstition. He was a good Poet, Mathematician, Divine, Lawyer and Physician. He died in the forty-fifth year of his age, and was buried in the College Church of Aberdeen, 20th October, 1583. He, with Mr. Andrew Melvil, had committed to them the reformation of the Foundations of Aberdeen and Glasgow. He procured the College the gift of the Deanery of Aberdeen." Gordon, quoting Middleton, Calderwood, Spotswood, Mackenzie and Orem. See Wodrow's Biographical Collections (New Spald. Club).

1584. Mr. Walter Stuart.

Previously Subprincipal. "Succeeded anno 1584, and died 1593 [? 2], not being past 36 years of age; a man much esteemed for bearing and prudence. He had the parsonage of Methlick and resigned it to the College." Orem. "He lies buried on the north side within the College chapel, in the place where the altar stood." Gordon.

1592. Mr. David Rait.

Previously Subprincipal. Subscribes 25th December, 1592. (Gordon, II. 179.)

"Of the house of Hallgreen in the Mernis. . . . Afterwards graduated Doctor of Divinity, being the first that received the degree after the Reformation. He lived till anno 1632, having born office within the College as Regent, Subprincipal, and Principal about fifty years." Orem.

1632, November 5. Dr. William Leslie.

Previously Subprincipal. Of Aikenway. "He received the degrees both of batchelor and doctor while he was Subprincipal; he was in very great esteem for his learning, being one of the Doctors of Aberdeen who wrote the Duplies, etc. He was deposed for his refusing the Covenant, anno 1639." Orem. Minutes of Visitation, 13th April, 1638. (O. C., xxiii. 23.)

1640, August 18. Dr. William Guild.

The first election of Principal on record. Procurators: Mr. James Sandilands, commissar, Lothian; Mr. William Davidson of Carny, Angus; Mr. James Baird, advocate, Mar; Mr. Patrick Chalmer, sheriff-clerk, Murray.

Guild was one of the Ministers of Aberdeen. See under "Rectors"; also his Life by Shirrefs. "Anno 1649 the General Assembly gave a commission to some ministers and lay elders to reform the College, and expel the malignants. Persons thrust out: Dr. William Guild, principal; Alexander Middleton, subprincipal; Patrick Gordon, George Middleton, professors of philosophy. The commissioners at that time did not unanimously agree whom to put in; therefore they ordered the latter to continue till his place were supplied by another. Shortly after, the masters restored the principal in despite of all opposition to his place. But, anno 1651, general Monk sent five colonels to reform the college: colonels Fenwick, Moseley, Owen, Disborough and Smith. Graduates of 1627-28; entrants of 1628-29, 1629-30, 1630-31; graduates (as Subprincipal) of 1632-33, 1633-34, 1634-35, 1635-36, 1636-37, 1638-39, when Mr. Robert Ogilvie is associated with him. "Anno 1643, upon Tuesday, January 17, the said Mr. Alexander Middleton, Subprincipal, was married with Margaret Gordon, daughter to Mr. Thomas Gordon at Kathock's Mill, contrary to the foundation of the College, for he was the first regent that entered in a marriage condition in this College." Orem. Afterwards Principal.

1652. Mr. Gilbert Rule.

Previously Regent, but not Senior Regent. Graduates of 1651-52, and (probably as Subprincipal taking place of Middleton) of 1652-53, and 1656-57. "It appears from the Album that this was a change [from Middleton to Rule] unacceptable to the country. The class of students which Mr. Middleton takes up in 1649 amounts to 49, but dwindles down to 13 when it comes into the hands of Mr. Rule in 1652. Mr. Rule came into the College by violence and without minding forms. . . . He went to England where he served as a minister probably of the sect of Independents. He married in Old Aberdeen Elisabeth Burnay, 4th February, 1635." Gordon. Afterwards Principal of Edinburgh University.

1711, January 18. Mr. William Black.

Senior Regent. In place of Mr. George Fraser, deceased. Procurators: John Farquharsone of Invercauld, Lothian; Captain John Stewart of Denna, Angus; Alexander Ker of Meanie, Aberdeen; Patrick Smith of Inveramsay, Moray. "He was one of the masters who in the year 1714 presented and forcibly intruded as Minister of Old Machar one Mr. John Sharp, an Episcopal Minister, in opposition to the Presbyters of Aberdeen, who were carrying on the settlement of Mr. Alexander Mitchel, Minister of Belhelvie, by a popular call. Note, during the time of this violence, those of the Presbyterian persuasion, being excluded violently from the parish church, attended worship, after the Presbyterian form, in one of the Prebend's manses, called Toryleith's house, Mr. Sharp in the mean time useing the service of the Church of England in the parish church, where he was attended by Dr. Middleton, Mr. Black and most of the masters. This matter became a Justiciary process at Edinburgh at the instance of the Queen's Advocate, and Mr. Black was condemned to a quarter or half a year's imprisonment for the share he had taken in it; the hardship of which brought on his death, some time probably in the year 1714, before the Queen's death in August." Gordon.

1764, November 5. Mr. Roderick Macleod.

Senior Regent, in place of Mr. Alexander Burnet, demitted. Procurators: as in election of Mediciner on same day. See under "Principals," 1800.

1800, June 10. William Jack, M.D.

Senior Regent. Voted for by Dr. Gerard, Mr. Ogilvie, Dr. Dauney, Sir Alexander Bannerman, Dr. Jack, and four Procurators (James Forbes of Seaton, Rev. William Mackenzie, Old Aberdeen, Mr. Andrew Jopp and Mr. John Watson, advocates: nominated by Dr. Dauney, and supported by the other four members aforesaid). Mr. Robert Eden Scott was voted for by the Principal, the Rector, Dr. Macpherson, Mr. Bentley, Mr. Scott and four Procurators (Alexander Fraser of Fraserfield, James Mercer of Achnacant, Lieut.-Col. Francis Stewart of Lessmurdy, and Mr. Alexr. Shand, advocate: nominated by the Principal, and supported by the other four members aforesaid). The Principal gave a casting vote in each election; but the vote of the Rector in the election of Procurators was protested against by Dr. Dauney and those who adhered to him; and this view was upheld by Counsel (R. Dundas, Robert Blair, F. Jeffrey—Min. of 3rd January, 1801).

1817, May 27. Hugh Macpherson, M.D.

Senior Regent. Nominators: Lieut.-Col. Forbes, Old Aberdeen, Mar; William Dingwall Fordyce of Techmuiry, Angus; Hugh Gordon, Aberdeen, Moray; Alexander Bannerman, Aberdeen, Lothian. Dr. Macpherson had been elected to the same post, 23rd November, 1815, by himself, Professors Bentley, Paul, Tulloch and the same four Procurators; but on 26th May, 1817, the members unanimously agreed "to retrace their steps in order that hereby all differences may be terminated, and the irregular proceedings corrected which, in the course of the late elections, have taken place among all concerned". The Principal (Jack), Mr. Ogilvy, Dr. Dauney and Dr. Bannerman absented themselves from the meeting of 23rd November, 1815. On 26th October, these four had proposed to fill up the vacant Regency and Professorship of Moral Philosophy by the appointment of Mr. Patrick Forbes, minister of Boharm: Dr. Jack to retain the Subprincipalship, in virtue of which alone he sat at the meeting, as the Chancellor had not yet formally admitted him as Principal. Professors Macpherson, Bentley, Paul and Tulloch voted for the Rev. Daniel Dewar, minister of the College Church in Aberdeen. The votes being equal, Dr. Jack offered a casting vote in favour of Mr. Forbes, but this was protested against. Before next meeting, on 18th November; when Dr. Jack, now admitted Principal by the Chancellor, had intended to admit the Rev. Patrick Forbes, Dr. Daniel Dewar had obtained from the Court of Session an interim interdict against his so doing. On 11th July, 1816, Lord Ordinary Pitmilly declared the interdict perpetual, finding "that the Charter of 1531, being the second foundation of the College by Bishop Elphinstone [Dunbar] as affected or explained by the usage which has prevailed, must furnish the rule for determining the present question; and in respect neither the Charter nor the usage has ever recognised among the founded persons of whom the College consists a Subprincipal separate or distinct from the Magister Artium or Regent to whose office the appointment of Subprincipal is annexed by the Charter, finds that by his resignation of the Moral Philosophy chair, Dr. Jack ceased to be Subprincipal, and had no right to vote in the election of his successor to the chair of the Philosophy class; finds that it is therefore unnecessary to determine whether Dr. Jack would have been entitled to a casting vote in the election of the Professor, if he had an elective vote". The contention of the opposite party was that the junction of offices was effected only by the Nova Fundatio, which had never been recognised as statutory. The dispute gave rise to much bad feeling. (Cf. under "Rectors". Min. of 2nd December, 1816.) Dr. Macpherson married, 1*st*, 6th October, 1803, Ann Marcia Charters, and had issue, Martin, Samuel Charters; and 2*nd*, 25th September, 1809, Christina Macleod, and had issue, Isabella, William, Anne Maria, Christina, Janet, Hugh Martin, Margaret, Roderick Donald, Norman, Arthur George and Lucy Jane. Died 12th March, 1854.

1854, April 7. David Thomson, M.A.

Regent. Procurators: Robert Grigor, Moray; Rev. David M'Taggart, Mar; Rev. Robert Smith, Angus; Dr. Peter Redfern, Lothian. The electors "did unanimously record their sympathy with Dr. Hercules Scott, whose services as Regent, during a very long period, they highly appreciated, but whose infirm health rendered him unable to discharge the onerous duties of Subprincipal". Married, 14th September, 1843, Helen Stuart, and had issue, David Meliss, Mary Esther, Catherine Emma (m., 1877, George Sandeman), Annie, Helen Madeline, Isabella Marjory, Edmond Stronge and Charles Harald. Died 31st January, 1880. Bust in possession of University.

Previously Regent, 1640-50. "He was a son of Gordon of Kethock's Mill.[1] . . . He married Marie Hervie, 22nd June, 1650. He was turned out by the English, along with Principal Guild; upon which only 16 of his 32 students [entrants of 1647-48] remained at the College [graduates of 1651-52: Mr. John Strachan]. After the Restoration he was made Civilist, which he demits anno 1669, and became Humanist, in which last office he died. Having acquired the Hebrew language from a Jew that happened to come to the country, the College gave him a salary of [300 merks] with the title of Professor of Hebrew, in order to induce him to teach the students that language, which he continued to do, along with the Humanity, till his death. . . . 7th January, 1693, Mr. Patrick being 80 years of age, the Masters nominate his son, Mr. Thomas Gordon, as his Colleague, and find and oblige themselves to declare him his father's successor at his death, etc., and to grant him a presentation, etc. [This minute not now extant.] Note, this Mr. Thomas Gordon had been a Regent in Glasgow College; was an active person in opposition to the Revolution, for which he underwent a trial for his life before the Court of Justiciary; was confined by them a prisoner to his father's house, his confinement afterwards enlarged to the county, afterwards taken off altogether. He was the first collector of the Bishops' rents of Aberdeen. He collected crops 1695, 1696, 1697." Gordon.

1695, October 1. Mr. Alexander Gordon.

See Minute of 23rd February, 1719. "Born 27th October, 1665. He was son of the former Humanist, Mr. Patrick Gordon, and entered to the office upon his death. . . . He took Episcopal ordination, and was assistant to the minister of Logie in Buchan at the time this office was conferred upon him. 26th December, 1704, he married Barbara Colison, in Banchory Devenick. He died possessed of this office in the month of December, 1738." Gordon.

Andrews and Glasgow anent the proper duty of a Professor of Humanity, intends to give over at Whitsunday next the teaching the elements of Latin in the way of a Grammar School, and in place thereof he proposes to teach ane Humanity Class during the session of the College in the same manner as in other Universities". The Principal complains, 26th January, 1760, that "he has scarcely ever had the face of a publick class".

REGENTS.[1]

15—. Mr. Henry Spittal.

"Is adolescentes, priusquam altiores peteret disciplinas, quosdam exacta diligentia nobiscum in philosophia erudivit; Wilhelmi nostri cognatus." Boece's Life of Elphinstone; and Dempster.

15—. Mr. David Guthrie.

Gray is mentioned in Vaus' Commentarii, 1522. Bisset is styled "artium actu regens" in deed of 10th March, $152\frac{2}{3}$. (Parch. Chart., p. 139.) He was afterwards Principal.

15—. Mr. John Hay.

Collation to a chaplaincy, 2nd June, 1520. (O. C., xxvi. 8.)

15—. Mr. John Melvin.
Mr. John Watson.
Mr. Patrick Ogston.
Mr. John Wyllie.

These six are given, Fasti, p. lxxxv., apparently on the authority of an Obligation by the members of the College, of date 17th February, 1542 (O. C. xix. 9), in which their names occur. But only Melvin is designated "regens," the others being seemingly the "studentes in theologia" of Dunbar's Confirmation. Gordon (II. 179) gives Melvin, Watson and Ogston as Regents, 16th July, 1543. Watson is mentioned in Robertson's Stat. Eccl. Scot., II. 289.

15—. Mr. Andrew Arbuthnot.

These three subscribe 10th April, 1580, and 27th May, 1581. (Gordon, II. 173, 177.)

158—. Mr. David Rait.

Previously Humanist. Subscribes as Regent 14th August, 1583. (Gordon, II. 173.) Afterwards Subprincipal and Principal.

158—. Mr. Robert Burnet.

158—. Mr. Peter Udney.

158—. Mr. David Clarke.

Previously Humanist. Subscribes as Regent 15th March, $158\frac{5}{6}$. (Gordon, II. 173.)

158–. Mr. William Barclay.

Subscribes, 4th April, 1585 (Gordon, II. 179), and 20th March, $15\frac{89}{90}$ (O. C., xxiv. 8[a]). Gordon, I. 76, says 5th April, 1583, and 31st March, 1598, but this must be an error. See Appx. I. "Afterwards an advocate in Edinburgh." Orem.

158–. Mr. Dugal Mackenzie.

"There happened to be a Vacancy of a Regency at Aberdeen, in which Place our Authour was installed with the universal Applause of the whole Masters of the University. And in this Station he continued till his Death . . . 1588." George Mackenzie's Scots Writers, II. 476. This statement seems irreconcilable with the sequence of Regents shown in the Appendix.

1587. Mr. John Guthrie.

Previously Humanist. Subscribes as Regent 12th August, 1587, and 9th May, 1592. (O. C., xxvii. 33.) Promoted to be minister of Banff, 1590.

15—. Mr. James Sibbald.

Previously Humanist. Subscribes as Regent 13th December, 1590; 13th May, 1593. (Gordon, II. 173, 175.) Promoted to be minister of Benholm, 1595.

159–. Mr. David Robertson.[1]

Subscribes 29th November, 1594; 16th June, 1598. (Gordon, II. 173, 175.) Promoted to be minister of S. Fergus, 1599.

1599. Mr. Andrew Young.

Subscribes 15th March, 1600. (Gordon, II. 173.) According to the Album he has the graduating class in Session 1600-01, but his pupil, Mr. Gilbert Keith, succeeds him with the entering class of 1601-02. "Both before and afterwards Regent in Edinburgh." Orem. This is not correct. According to Dalziel's University of Edinburgh, Young graduated at Edinburgh in 1598, and was an unsuccessful candidate for a Regency there in 1599, but was called from Aberdeen to fill a vacancy in December, 1601.

16—. Mr. James Strachan.

Graduates of 1601-02, 1605-06, 1609-10, when he was promoted to be minister of Coldstone.

16—. Mr. Patrick Guthrie.

Subscribes 19th May, 1602. (Gordon, II. 175.) See under "Subprincipals".

1601. Mr. Gilbert Keith.

Succeeded Mr. Andrew Young. Graduates of 1604-05, 1608-09, 1612-13, [1] Fasti, p. lxxxvi., following Gordon, I. 77, gives a Mr. Andrew Robertson in 1597, but this seems an error for David. See Appendix I.

when he is succeeded by Mr. William Forbes. Promoted to be minister of Skene, 1610;[1] Bourtie, 1617.

1610. Mr. Patrick Reid.

Subscribes 15th December, 1610. (Gordon, II. 175.) Has entrants of 1610-11, but the class is taken up by Mr. Robert Dunbar.

1610. Mr. James Rait.

Previously Humanist. Subscribes as Regent 15th December, 1610. Graduates of 1611-12, 1615-16; entrants of 1616-17, who graduate with Mr. John Forbes. Promoted to be minister of Aberluthnot, 1617.

1617. Mr. William Leslie.

Previously Humanist. See under "Subprincipals".

1618. Mr. Alexander Lunan.

Previously Humanist. Entrants of 1618-19 and 1622-23, who graduate with Mr. John Lundie. Subscribes 5th July, 1625. (Gordon, II. 179.) Promoted to be minister of Monymusk, 2nd October, 1625; of Kintore, 1628.

1625. Mr. John Lundie.

Graduates of 1625-26; entrants of 1626-27, who graduate with Mr. Alexander Strachan. Afterwards Humanist.

1627. Mr. David Leech.

See under "Subprincipals".

162—. Mr. George Leith.

Entrants of 1627-28 and 1632-33, and probably semis of intervening Sessions. Promoted to be minister of Culsalmond "prior to 17th June, 1635"; Bethelny, 1647; Candidate for Chair of Divinity, 1641.

[1] "1605. Alexander Scrogie, prom. [to Skene] from being Regent in King's College, Aberdeen." Scott's Fasti, III. 514. This seems a blunder, as the sequence of Regents, 1600-10, is clear. See Appendix I.

162–. Mr. Andrew Strachan.

Graduates of 1628-29, 1629-30, 1630-31, 1631-32. Afterwards Professor of Divinity.

Apparently succeeded Mr. George Leith. Regent and Procurator Angusiensis at College Meeting, 30th June, 1634. See under "Subprincipals," 1638.

1634. Mr. William Strachan.

Name not found in Album. Is Regent and Procurator Moraviensis, 30th June, 1634. Promoted to be minister of Methlick, 1635; Old Machar, 1640.

1634. Mr. Alexander Middleton.

Regent and Procurator Laudoniensis, 30th June, 1634. See under "Subprincipals," 1641.

1635, November 3. Mr. Alexander Gardyne.

Appears in place of Strachan, now minister of Methlick. Entrants of 1641-42, who graduate with Mr. A. Youngson. Promoted to be minister of Forgue, 1645. "He was married to Isabel Middleton in Old Aberdeen, 1644." Gordon.

1638, April 30. Mr. Alexander Scrogie,

Younger, student of Theology. Had been Procurator Aberdonensis, 30th June, 1634. Elected in place of Ogilvie, now Subprincipal. Deprived by General Assembly Committee, and Gardyne appointed to teach his (third) class, as well as his own (18th October, 1639).

1640, October 8. Mr. Patrick Gordon.

In place of Scrogie. Graduates of 1642-43, 1646-47, and entrants of 1647-48, who graduate with Mr. J. Strachan. Ejected with the Principal and Subprincipal c. 1650. Afterwards Civilist, 1661; Humanist, 1669; and Professor of Hebrew, 1673.

Appears as Regent, seemingly in place of Rait (31st October). Graduates of 1643-44, 1647-48; entrants of 1649-50, who graduate with Mr. Gilbert Rule. M.D., 16—.

1644, October 4. Mr. Andrew Youngson.

Previously Regent at Marischal College. In place of Gardyne, now minister of Forgue. Graduates of 1644-45; entrants of 1645-46. "He went abroad and became popish." Orem.

1646, June 26. Mr. Patrick Sandilands.

Previously Regent at Marischal College. In place of Youngson, "resolved to travell out of the country for furtherance of his studies". Youngson was afterwards professor in the Scots College, Madrid. See under "Subprincipals".

1651. Mr. John Strachan.[1]

Graduates of 1650-51 (apparently succeeding Patrick Gordon) and 1654-55. In 1659, Mr. Patrick Sandilands, Subprincipal, graduates "magistro Joanne Strachano regente in Gallias contendente". Rector of the Scots College in Rome, 1670. "The said Mr. Strachan was the best scholar that ever was in the College. But the Cants and the rest of the clergy in Aberdeen had prejudice at him, because he was a royalist; and because his uncle, Sir John Strachan, was with King Charles II. At last, the said Strachan was to graduate his scholars of the magistrand class; and after he had printed his theses, and distributed them, and the day appointed for the graduation in the common school of the College, then Mr. Andrew Cant, regent in Marischall College, and the rest of the clergy, accused Mr. Strachan for his theses, and said he had set down popish positions in them. But Mr. Strachan told them he would defend all that was inserted in his thesis; whereupon the diet of graduation was altered, and a new diet to be at S. Machar's Church in Old Aberdeen. When the day came, there was a great confluence of gentry from all places of the country, who came to S. Machar's Church. Thence came over the Cants, and Mr. Menzies, and all the rest of the clergy of Aberdeen, and with them Mr. Alexander Cant, minister of Nether Banchory, and placed themselves in the Marquess of Huntly's loft, opposite to the pulpit; for Mr. Strachan had taken the pulpit, and no person with him but Professor Douglas, who sat on the latron, and Principal Row sat alone in the college-loft. Mr. Strachan began with a prayer, and after had a long harangue; which, being ended, he invited them to impugn his theses. Then they began to object, and he answered their arguments readily; but to his solutions they all answered una voce, which made a great confusion in the disputations. Yet learned men said that Mr. Strachan had the better of it that day. This dispute continued long; at last, when it was ended, and the people dismissed, coming out of the church door, Mr. Strachan accuses young Mr. Andrew Cant, regent, for some reflecting answer he had given him in the time of the dispute, and would have trampled him under his feet, if the gentry had not interposed, and taken Mr. Strachan away with them. For Mr. Strachan was a gentleman, and a pretty man both in parts and in body, and undervalued all the Cants. His father was Mr. Alexander Strachan, minister of Logie Durno, and parson of Fetterneir. Before the dispute, Mr. Strachan graduated his class; and the Earl of Aberdeen, who became chancellor of Scotland, was first graduated; then the rest. And immediately thereafter, Mr. Strachan demitted in favours of Mr. George Gordon, with consent of the College, because he could not live at peace with the Covenanters. And thereafter, the said Mr. Strachan went abroad and studied physick. Then he came home to see his father and his friends; and after that he went again abroad, turned popish, and died abroad, etc." Orem.

[1] The entry "1648, J. Middleton," occurs in the list of Regents given in the Fasti Aberd., p. lxxxvii., but no such name is found in the Album or in the lists of Orem or Gordon. The signature on p. 163 of the Fasti appears to be a misreading of "M. G. Middleton, Regent". "James Chalmers, promoted [to New Machar] from being Regent in King's Coll. previous to 1651." Scott's Fasti, III. 508. This seems a blunder, as the sequence of Regents, 1640-50, is clear. See Appendix I.

1651. Mr. Gilbert Rule.

The accounts of the Bishops' Rents are signed in 1650 by Patrick Gordon, George Middleton and Patrick Sandilands, Regents; in 1651, by Patrick Sandilands, Gilbert Rule and John Strachan, Regents. See under "Subprincipals," 1652.

1652. Mr. Hugh Anderson.

Graduates of 1653-54 (apparently succeeding Mr. Alex. Middleton, and taking Mr. Patrick Sandilands' class in 1652); entrants of 1654-55, who graduate with Mr. Andrew Massie. Promoted to be minister of Cromarty, 1656. Married Grisel, daughter of Principal Row. Died 3rd June, 1704.

[1] The entry "1685 Ma. Scougall" occurs in the list of Regents given in the Fasti Aberd., p. lxxxvii.; but no such name is found in the lists of Orem or Gordon, and the College Minutes seem to be complete from 24th October, 1684, to 21st October, 1689. Likeas, for the encouragement of the said fixed teacher of the Greek, it is hereby appointed that no scholar bred at schools in Scotland shall be admitted to learn philosophy, or any part of the course thereof, in any of the colleges and universities, unless that he have learned his Greek, at least for the ordinary year under the said fixed Greek master, and report an authentic certification thereon; and this provision to take effect for and after the year 1701, and no sooner. And the Greek master that shall be chosen hereby is ordained to obey without reclaiming, with this provision nevertheless for his encouragement, that it shall be in his option, upon any vacancy that happens of any of the said three philosophy masters in his college or university, to betake himself to his place without any new trial; in which case the vacancy of the Greek master shall be supplied by one to be fixed as above. And the commission ordain letters and charges to be direct on this act as effeirs, and that the same be furthwith printed and sent to the several universities and colleges, that none may pretend ignorance."

PROFESSORS OF MATHEMATICS.

1703, May 4. Mr. Thomas Bowar.

"The principall and remanent masters takeing to their serious consideration how much it may be for the advancement of learneing and interest of the said University that the Mathematicks should be professed and taught therein" appoint Mr. Bowar at a salary of two hundred merks Scots with a seat at the College table. He obtains leave to go to Edinburgh, 5th July. Returns 27th November, 1704. Goes to London, 6th October, 1705. "John Gordon, provost of Aberdeen, finds fault with Mr. George Liddel, professor of mathematicks in the Marischal College, turned him out of his post, and caused affix an edict upon the most patent door of the said college gate, inviting all men to come and dispute for the said Mr. Liddel's post, assuring them of detur digniori. But the said Mr. Liddel applied to the King's advocate, who assured him of the post; so that there was no diet appointed for the dispute. One Dr. Thomas Bower came from London to dispute for it; being disappointed, he protested against the magistrates of Aberdeen, for cost, skaith, and damage, etc. Thereafter, he applied to the Scots parliament holden at Edinburgh, anno 1707; and got 40*l.* fixed upon the town of Aberdeen, and 10*l.* sterling upon the town of Kirkaldie, to be professor of mathematicks in the King's College of Aberdeen. At that time the magistrates of Aberdeen were seeking a gift of the pennies, and said, They would be content to pay Dr. Bower the said 40*l.* if the parliament would give them the Old Town, Seaton and Spital, which was granted them. And so they fixed 40*l.* sterling on these towns. But the inhabitants of Old Aberdeen complained much for laying such a taxation on them, having never had pennies formerly. And, to free the inhabitants and brewers of Old Aberdeen from being troubled with New Aberdeen collectors of the pennies, the magistrates of Old Aberdeen, viz.: Mr. Alexander Fraser, regent at the King's College, Mr. William Gordon, Kintore, William Baxter and Alexander Troup, engaged and contracted with the magistrates of New Aberdeen, to pay them yearly the said 40*l.*; but this contract they made allenarly of themselves, without consent of the town or council of Old Aberdeen. But afterwards, the Old Town brewers suspended them, because Dr. Bower was gone to London, and did not officiate here in the said College as professor of mathematicks. Yet, notwithstanding the aforesaid magistrates of Old Aberdeen, who made this contract with the magistrates of New Aberdeen, without consent aforesaid, dismissed the suspension, and made them liable, by a decree of the Lords of Session, to pay the yearly pennies and expences. At last, anno 1717, Dr. Bower demitted; whereupon the town of New Aberdeen's collectors discharged the magistrates of Old Aberdeen of the said contract and pennies (which they paid yearly to them before the said Dr. Bower's dismission), July, 1719." Orem. "Dr. Thomas Bower had been nominated by the College as Professor of Mathematics, having been serviceable to the Scots Parliament in calculations relating to the equivalent; upon which account they recommended him to Queen Ann. . . . Admitted May, 1707 [Minute not now extant]. . . . The mathematical class having turned to little account, after a few years' trial, Dr. Bower returned to London and abandoned his charge, at first without formally resigning it. But afterwards he resigned it anno 1717, and the Magistrates of New Aberdeen discharged the above contract, anno 1719. Dr. Thomas Bower died at London, and was buried in Chelsea churchyard, where there is a gravestone with an inscription over him." Gordon.

1732, October 31. Mr. Alexander Rait.

Assistant to the Subprincipal, "had for some years after he commenced Master of Arts [17—] taught Mathematicks privatly in this College with great approbation . . . to profess and teach Mathematicks both publickly and privatly in the said College".

Lectures [?]

[1] The following entries are taken from the Minute Book of the Murray Trustees. See also Scottish Notes and Queries, I. 135, 155; III. 44, 45; V. 9; VI. 157. Alexander Murray, M.A., 1746; D.D., 1784; died at Philadelphia, 14th September, 1793, having by will, dated 6th September, bequeathed the residue of his estate (subject to his widow's liferent) "to my venerable cousin, the Rev. Dr. John Chalmers, and to the four Regents and Professors of my Alma Mater, the King's College and University of Aberdeen, in Scotland, and to their successors in office, for the encouragement, in the first place, of a clergyman to preach a course of lectures in the College Church on Sunday mornings, in the time of their Winter Sessions, on such subjects as they think fitted to tincture their students with just and liberal notions of pure and undefiled religion and virtue, without descending to party distinctions and controversy. This donation is also intended to remove, in some measure, the uncommon grievance and indecorum of their processions to their parish church in an inclement season. In this more unprejudiced critical age, it were to be wished that the famous Seminary would agree upon a form of public prayers and worship, with or without responses and instrumental music, to be used at these lectures, as is common in all other countries, to inure youth to the greater solemnity and order. . . . Two of the lectures at least I appoint to be printed, published and presented to the Trustees by the Lecturer every year." Mrs. Murray died 28th May, 1811. On 26th October, the Senatus agreed to appoint Mr. Paul lecturer, but he declined to act, 9th November, owing to differences of opinion in that body. Some doubt having arisen as to whether Dr. Murray intended the non-Regent Professors to act as Trustees, the question was submitted to Mr. Moir of Scotstoun as arbitrator, who decided in the negative. After considerable delays, owing in great measure to the strained relations between this country and the United States, the amount of the bequest was placed in the hands of the Trustees, yielding an annual income of about £190. The lecturers appointed during the first two Sessions had no salary, the money being placed at the disposal of the Senatus for the repair of the buildings.

[1] The Scottish Universities Commissioners (1858) by an Ordinance (No. 6, Aberdeen, No. 2) constituted three Lectureships, under Dr. Murray's bequest, to be held respectively by the Professors of Systematic Theology, Church History and Biblical Criticism. This Ordinance was petitioned against by upwards of 200 graduates of King's College, and was disallowed by the Queen in Council, on the ground that fifty years had not elapsed since the death of Mrs. Murray. But the Commissioners subsequently obtained an Act of Parliament (25 and 26 Vict., Cap. 28), empowering them to alter the conditions affecting the bequest; and by a new Ordinance (No. 74, Aberdeen, No. 34), they re-enacted the scheme described above.

LECTURERS IN MEDICAL SCHOOL.[1]

1818. Dr. Charles Skene, Lecturer on Anatomy.
Dr. William Dyce, Lecturer on Midwifery.
Dr. George Barclay, Lecturer on Surgery.
Dr. William Henderson, Lecturer on Materia Medica.
Previously recognised as lecturers by Marischal College (Fasti Acad. Mariscall., p. 524), and now by the joint school. See Mrs. Rodger's Aberdeen Doctors.

October 31. Dr. Alexander Ewing: Physiology.

1819, October 18. Dr. Robert White: Institutes of Medicine.
Resigns 29th June, 1820.

[1] The origin and nature of the joint Medical School is made clear by the following extract from the Minutes of King's College:—

"6th July, 1818.

"Said day the Medical Committee gave in their report, which was approved of, and the tenor whereof follows:—Aberdeen, May 16, 1818.—At a Meeting of the Committees of King's and Marischal Colleges, to arrange a plan for the establishment of a Medical School, held at Marischal College, 16th May, the following regulations were suggested, as most consistent with the constitution of the Colleges, and best adapted to promote the institution, which, under the joint patronage of the two Universities, may attain a greater character, and be more extensively useful, than it could if only supported by one of them.

"1. Both Universities to have equal power over the Medical School.

"2. Courses of Lectures to be given, during the Winter Session, on the following subjects:—Anatomy, Animal Economy, Surgery, Practice of Physic, Theory of Physic, Materia Medica, Clinical Medicine and Midwifery, and a course of Lectures on Botany during the Summer.

"3. Lecturers on these subjects to be appointed or confirmed before the ensuing Session, or when the state of the School shall be thought to require this nomination.

"4. As the appointment of the Lecturers by a general meeting of both Colleges, having no corporate capacity, might not be deemed valid by the separate Faculties, it is proposed that the nomination to the Lectureships shall belong alternately to each, neither appointing twice successively to the same Lectureship, and that the appointment thus made by one College shall be confirmed by the other; both Faculties entering a regulation in their minutes, binding themselves to this mode of alternate nomination and mutual confirmation.

"5. Lecturers having been named by Marischal College on Anatomy, Surgery, and 1820, August 28. Dr. Patrick Blaikie: Surgery.

In place of Dr. Barclay, deceased.
1823, August 16. Dr. Alexander Ewing: Anatomy.
In place of Dr. Skene, now Professor of Medicine, Marischal College.
1826, November 6. Mr. Alexander Fraser, M.A.: Midwifery.
1827, April 9. Dr. William Knight: Botany.
Appointment made by Marischal College, where Dr. Knight was Professor of Natural Philosophy. He had taught Botany voluntarily since 1823.
1828, December 6. Dr. James Torrie: Institutes of Medicine.
1830, April 16. Dr. Alexander Ewing: Surgery.
In place of Dr. Blaikie, deceased.
May 14. Dr. William Pirrie, M.A.: Anatomy and Physiology.
November 20. Dr. William Laing, M.A.: Clinical Medicine.
The last four appointed by Marischal College: approved by King's.
1831, January 19. Dr. John Geddes: Institutes of Medicine.
In place of Dr. Torrie, resigned.

Materia Medica, before the present plan of joint patronage was thought of, it is recommended that these appointments should in the meantime be confirmed by King's College, and that the first nomination to the vacant Lectureships should proceed from the Faculty of King's College, and be confirmed by Marischal College.

"6. In case the Professors of Medicine of the College should at any time wish to give Courses of Lectures, it will be advisable to reserve the Theory and Practice of Physic for them, the choice of either subject lying with the Professor that first undertakes the duty of lecturing. The appointment of Lecturers on these subjects may therefore be considered as ad interim.

"7. Should any of the Lecturers allow a Session to pass without giving a regular Course, his appointment is to be declared void, unless he shall have been prevented from doing so by bad health, or such reasons as may be deemed satisfactory by the College with which the next nomination to his lectureship lies.

"8. After the first nominations, when a vacancy is to be supplied in any of the established Courses, the College whose turn it is, shall appoint a Lecturer within six months after the vacancy has occurred; two meetings of the Faculty having been held, at a month's interval, to consider the best mode of supplying it, and the claims of different candidates.

"9. To facilitate the arrangements necessary in opening and conducting the different Courses, it is recommended that a Standing Committee be appointed by each of the Faculties, to co-operate in superintending and promoting the objects of the Institution; and that a Report of the state of the Medical School be made at least once a year, by this Joint Committee, to a General Meeting of the Faculties of both Universities.

"10. An equal number of Classes to be taught at each University, if required, and deemed expedient by either. In the meantime, as a room has been built at Marischal College for the Anatomical Lectures, and as the great difficulties attending the due supply of preparations, etc., would be increased by changing the place of teaching, the Anatomical Course may be given at Marischal College; the other Courses either at King's or Marischal Colleges, as may be agreed on by the Committee."

1834, September 16. Dr. William Laing: Surgery.
In place of Dr. Ewing, resigned.

1850, February 7. Mr. John Christie: Botany.
In place of Dr. Dickie, now Professor of Natural History, Queen's College, Belfast; and in 1860, Professor of Botany, University of Aberdeen.

[1] On 11th April, 1839, the Senatus unanimously resolved, inter alia, "that all connection with the Marischal College in reference to the Medical School shall cease from and after the close of the Session," it being "inexpedient and even dangerous to maintain any further intercourse with Marischal College respecting the Medical School, when the letter and spirit of the original agreement have been so palpably violated". The Marischal College Senatus issued a pamphlet of Extracts from their Records. The Mediciner of King's College, Dr. W. Gregory, selected as his department 'Institutes of Medicine and Practical Chemistry,' but changed to 'Materia Medica,' instead of former, 1st October.

[1] The Album [C.] eorum qui, etc. (see p. 97), continues the record of M.D.'s down to 17th April, 1818, but, as the transcript in Album [E.] ends, and as the new Album [H.] of Graduates in Medicine (see Preface) begins, with Dr. Thurston's name, it has been thought as well to abandon here the Latin entries of the older volume, and to take subsequent names directly from the original record, the Minute Books of the Senatus, compared, for the period 1800-1818, with Album C. and Album H., and for the period 1818-1860 with the latter.

Candidate; of the courses of Lectures he has attended on the various branches of Medical Science, specifying the names and residences of the Lecturers; and of such public examinations as he may have undergone.

2. "If the Candidate is in practice, he shall state how long he has been a practitioner, in what department of practice, and where.

3. "There shall further be laid before the Senatus the annexed form of certificate filled up and signed by at least two respectable physicians, regular Graduates in Medicine, known either personally or by reputation to some of the members of the University. And the Senatus, being duly sensible that the interest of the public and the reputation of Medical Science, no less than the honour of the University, are intimately connected with the character and qualifications of those on whom Medical degrees are conferred, express their confidence in the honour of those Doctors of Medicine who may be requested to grant attestations in favour of applicants, that they will give full attention to the tenor of the subjoined formula:—

"'That . . . residing at . . . has had a Classical Education and has made respectable Literary acquirements in general; that he has attended Lectures on Anatomy and Surgery, Chemistry and the Theory and Practice of Medicine, and well acquainted with Medical Science; that his moral character is irreproachable; that he is in our judgment well qualified in every respect to have the honour of the highest degree of Medicine conferred upon him; and that we can certify the above from full knowledge. This we declare on our honour and our conscience.'"

Dr. Bannerman protested "against the setting aside of the former and constant precedent of the College for the admission of Graduates in Medicine, inasmuch as the same must ever be found the only proper mode of procedure on such occasions, so long as the constitution of the University remains what it is".

APPENDIX II.

THE NOVA FUNDATIO.

"Quanquam Almae Matri aedes suae intactae, et Archiva quoque integra manserint," writes Professor John Ker in his Donaides, p. 18, "haud leve damnum passa est sub instauratae religionis tempus: abrogata optima celeberrimi Elphinstonii Institutione Universitatis primaeva, et substituta Institutione nova (Fundationem Novam vulgo vocant) quae prodiit An. 1592,[1] sub hoc titulo, Collegium Regale Aberdonense institutum, reformatum et restitutum, in modum Erectionis novae paulo ante prescriptae Academiis Andreanae et Glascuanae et unde maximam partem exscripta videtur Erectio Collegii Mareschallani anno sequenti 1593. Institutio haec nova (cujus Auctor fuit David Rhaetus, Coll. Regii Principalis) eo sane multo melior quod Papanos tollat ritus: in aliis autem plerisque omnibus, veterem Elphinstonianam praeferendam censemus. Utramque fusius collatam dedimus, Ath. Aberd."[2]

The text of the "Nova Fundatio" referred to on pages 6, 24, 50, 93, has not hitherto been published, either in the Reports of the various Commissions, or in the Fasti Aberdonenses. It is now printed from the copy in Professor Knight's Collections, vol. v., collated with the copy in Professor Gordon's Collections, vol. ii. Compare the First Book of Discipline, "Of the Erection of Universities," and the terms of the other post-Reformation foundations: "Buchanan's Reformation" of the University of S. Andrews, 1579 (printed in the Evidence of the 1826-30 Commission, vol. iii. p. 183); the "Erectio Regia" of the University of Glasgow, 1577 (Evidence, vol. ii. p. 239; Munimenta Univ. Glasg., vol. i. p. 103); the Charter of the University of Edinburgh, 1582 (Evidence, vol. i., App. v.; Crauford's History, p. 1; Bower's History, vol. i. p. 389); and the Charter of Marischal College and University, 1593 (Evidence, vol. iv. p. 235; Fasti Acad. Mariscall., vol. i. p. 39).

It is not now possible to give a complete account of the origin of this Foundation or to reconcile the contradictory statements made as to the extent to which its provisions were enforced. An attempt has been made below to bring together such scattered references to it as occur in contemporary documents.

This they presented to James the Sixth, then King of Scottlande; and it went neer to be ratifyd in parliament, had it not been opposed by Secretair Elphinstoune, a great statesman, who in favours of bishopp William Elphinstouns memorye (both of them being cadetts of the familye of Shelms) said it was no reason for to perverte the founders meaning, so far as it could stand with the reformed relligione. So the new draught was stifled in the birth; and that paper coming afterwards into the handes of bishopp Patricke Forbesse, with a sollicitatione for him to set it anew on foote, he threw it in to the fyre, wher it ended; and instantly, being chancellor of the Universitye, caused sett the old institution on foote, as farr as it could subsist with the protestant relligione" (Gordon's Scots Affairs, vol. ii. p. 156).

We did expect to haue hard long befor Chrystmes the good effectes which might haue followed upon your visitation of the universitie and our colledge of the Old Toun of Aberdene, bot by the contrarie ar now informed that the principall and four regentes of philosophie haveing these many yeires bein lyabill to the censure of deprivation through manifest contempt and violation of thair originall fundation, ar now of lait come to that hight of presumption as to abolish as much as in thame lyeth the ancient and trew fundation, so often ratiefeit by our nobill progenitouris and our selff in parliamentes, and to bring in a new one of thair awin forgeing, both to palliat thair past malversationes and appropriat to thame selffes onlie the whole reveneus, so to extinguish the professiones of law and medicin, and to redact all the fundation to ane bair scoole of philosophie, much contrarie to our pious and princelie designe of restoring to all the universities thair ancient integritie and splendor. These ar thairfoir to will and requyr you marques of Huntlie to convein furthwith a competent number of your fellow commissioners, and to tack ane exact and spidie tryall of the premisses, and according to the merites of the caus to punish and remove the transgressers, and restoir the professiones of law and medicin to the exercise of thair charge and stipend, and generallie to settill such cleir and firme order for all the professouris, and the proportion of thair mantenance aither present or as heirefter it may increa, and particularlie for the exercise of thair seuerall functiones, as may avoid and prevent any such transgressiones heirefter; and that in all ye proceid according to the trew meining of the ancient fundation, in so far as it is not contrarie to the religion presentlie profest or lawes of our kingdome, whairin not doubting of your cair we bid you fair weill. [Supplication and protest given in to the Lords Visitors. 12th April.]

"We rector principall subprincipall grammarier regents and officeris and bursaris of the kings colledge of Old Aberdene wnderstanding that your lordshipe, be wertue of ane letter purchased from his majestie, are to wisite the colledge, humblie desyres that your lordships

"1. Will take to your consideratione that ther is tuo letters written be his majestie for the wisitation of the colledge, wherof the first urges the establishing of the new fundation made by king James of happy memorie, the second of the old made by bishope Elphingstone. The caus of this contrarietie is the diversitie of informationes giwen to his majestie and specified in his letters. The information giwen for purchaseing the first letter is, that his majesties father of blessed memorie hade mortified to the colledge faire rents farr exceeding the rents mortified by the bishop, and that he made ane new fundation conteining the number of the members, lawes, ordour of doctrine and discipline to be obserwed thairin, and that this new foundation wes subscrywed be the king councell bishope and members of the colledge, and that it wes ratified in parliament in all the heads and clauses conteined into it, and that ewer since it wes framed we hawe been in continuall practice therof till of late it wes secretlie destroyed and burnt be privat persones without any warrand of superiour powers. Wpon this narrative his majestie most justlie hes commanded your lordships to take exact tryall of the destroyers of his fatheris fundation, and to restoir and reestablish the samen. The information giwen to his majestie for purchaseing the second letter is, that the masters of the colledge being persones subject to censures of deprivation for thair malversatione, intends to owerthrow the colledge and priviledges thairof, and to that effect hes forged ane new foundation to themselues; and that thair is no other true foundation but that of bishop Elphingstones, and that no other foundation was ewer ratified in parliament. Rebus sic stantibus his majestie could not bot ordaine bishope Elphingstones foundation to be keeped, so that his majestie in both his letters hath showin himselfe an most just and equitable prince.

"2. Seeing that both his majesties letters being contrarie ane to another cannot be put to execution, we intreat your lordships to wey and consider the weritie of the tuo informations wheron they ar grounded, that his majestie be not vilefied, nor his most religious and just intentions disapointed.

"3. We humblie supplicate your lordships to considder that no other letter can be justlie followed bot that which is grounded upon the true narrative, and if the other which is founded upon misformation be put to execution, the masters and members of the colledge haweing intress will hawe just reason to complaine. His majestie hes set doune in his lettres the seuerall informations for no other end bot that your lordships may ponderate them and judge accordinglie. If his majestie wold wryt tuo sewerall letters to ane judge, the on ordaining him to execute such an man, becaus he is informed that he hes committed ane murder, the other that he trouble him not, becaus he is informed that he is not guiltie of any cryme, it is most certaine that the judge haweing sufficientlie tryed the man's innocencie will newer adventure to take his lyfe upon the kings letter grounded upon wrong information, otherwayes he wrongs the king, offends God, and wounds his own conscience.

"4. We beseech your lordships to considder that the informations giwen be our adversaries for the establishing of the old foundation ar altogidder falss and forged, for neither hawe we nor any of us forged any new foundatioune to ourselues, nether hawe we any intention to destroy the universitie and priviledges thairof, nether ar we wnder any censures of deprivation for malversation, as your lordships will find be just tryall and examinatione; nether is it true that we hawe no foundation ratified in parliament, as we shall shew heirafter.

"5. We intreat your lordships to considder that our informations presented to his majestie for establishing the new foundation ar most true in all points, for first that king James of blessed memorie did mortifie fair revenews to the colledge, it is evident be three charters of his mortifications made anno 1574, 1579, 1586, quhairof we hawe the originall. Secondlie, that he made an new foundation we shall prowe by witnesses insert, and sundrie others who hes both sen and red it. Thirdlie, that the same foundatioune wes ratified in parliament the act of parliament holden anno Domini 1597 will testifie. Fourthlie, that the originall of this foundation wes secretlie destroyed and burnt be privat persones hawing no publict warrand, we offer to prove presentlie befor your lordships. The which things being proven and werified, your lordships cannot in equitie refuse to obey his majesties letter and establish king James foundatione."

[Answers to the supplication and protest, given in 13th April.]

"1. Imprimis, it is notorlie knowen to all Europe concerning that most excellent king, James the sext, quhat learning and knowledge was in his awin royall persone, and how gryt a favourer he was of all literature, and how far set for propagatione thairof; and to imagine or impute to his majestie such barbaritie and impietie at least informalitie as finding ane universitie compleit, and a colledge consisting of fourtie-tuo foundit members, whose rentes (except the chaplainries) forsaide could newir fall in his majesties hands; yet to haue maid such destructione and desolatione by a pretendit new fundatione, as to haue abrogate the haill professiones, and appropriate all the old rentes and his owin new mortificationes to sexteine persones onlie of fourtie-tuo, viz., a principall subprincipall thrie regentes a grammarier and ten bursers, adding unto them four new creat members, viz., ane oeconomous, ane cuike, the principall and subprincipall, tuo boyes, cassiring not onlie the professours of lawes and medicine, bot also thrie bursers in divinitie and thrie in philosophie, wha wer the right awneris, and quho wer nevir called nor conveined befoir a judge, or consentit to such alienationes of thair rent, which could neuir haue beine disponit or fall in the kinges hands wtherwayes.

"2. As for the alledgit tenor of this new fundatione, how ridiculous and vickid the same is which is contenit in the copie producit, it appeares; and first haueing no subscriptiones of any wther foundit member bot the subprincipall and thrie regentes, whose consent can be of no awaill to a donatione maid to themselues for augmenting thair owin stipends, and provyding unto thame new create servants, viz.: ane oeconomous ane cuike and tue boyes, neuir mentionat in the true fundatione, and that with exclusion of so many professores and bursers, far moir necessarie foundit memberis of the universitie.

"3. The bodie of this alledgit new fundatione hes neither day dait place nor witnesses, and being called by the producers a chartour of fundatione and new gift, yet it hes no seall nor ordeinit to be seallit, and is nether transumit before a judge nor registrat in any authentike registre in this kingdome, but onlie a bair informall copie; which ar thinges most ridiculous and incompatible with such a publict ewident as the fundatione of such a famous colledge. The lyke judgement may be giwen upone that copie of the act of counsell alledgit subscriuit be his majestie at Aberdene 1592, which wes ane tyme of gryt troubles and confusione in this land, and wes done, sine cause cognitione et partibus non auditis, if ewer it was done.

"4. And for the alledgit aid and subscription of the generall assemblie, it specifies not quhat fundatione of the colledge of Aberdene was than approven, and may justlie be suspectit to be forgit, considering the dait therof anno 1593, at Edinburgh; for it is of veritie that ther wes no generall assemblie holdin at Edinburgh that yeir, bot at Dundie onlie, quhair thair wes no such act maid, as may be cleirlie prowen by productione of the actes of the generall assemblies that yeir.

"5. And for the cheife defect thairof it is not ratified by parliament. As for that few lynes of ane copie of a ratificatione producit, it is so generall that it mey be applyed to the last true foundatione published by bishope Gavine Dumbar, ordeineing the same to be revised, and makes no mentione of king James fundatione; and being applyit thairto also, it ratifies it onlie to be revised; and the said act being of lait producit in judgement, the lords of sessione thair decisione was that, forsameikle as the said fundation was never yitt ratified nor ratified in parliament, albeit the privileges thairof war now extant as it is, not by thair awin negligence, yet the same to mak us fail. This was the sixth sentence anno 1618 in Martine.

"6. How could it be pruvin, if the said king James had in mynde ather maid ane new fundatione contrare to the true originall, that he sould so sone become ane approver of the same deid, or so changeable in schort space, as in his parliament 1617 to mak no mentione of the new fundatione: bot on the contrare to ratifie the said originall fundatione of the whole universitie maid by bischop Elphingstoune with addition of king James the first, quharin the whole professiones of lawes and medicine etc. as experience wel schewis, and ther privuledges ratified, to the utter overthrow of that alleged new fundatione; and therefter in anno 1619 to direct a commissione under the gryt seall for reestablissing of all the saids professiones in thair ordour, degrie and dependis according to the originall fundation, winche hes bein ewer in practise since about this twentie yeires past in all governaments and visitationes of chancellars and rectors, and admissione of members of this universitie, and expeding of tacks and evidents of the samen; and that so constantlie all this whyle that newis mentione hes beine maid, nor a scraipe of a pen to be producit according to that pretendit new fundatione.

"7. What preiudice it sould inferre to this universitie to retrinche the haill chiefe members of it, and the power of conferring degreis in all superior faculties which hes bein in use this sewin scoir of yeires, and especiallie this twentie yeires last bypast, as also in redacting ane universitie to a private schooll of philosophie, whose chanceller sould be electiue, quhairas the bischope of Aberdene by the originall fundatione is perpetuall chanceller of that famous universitie; and quhat necessitie it would impose to all youthes for peregrinatioun to studie the lawes and medicine which wtherwayes might be more safelie and cheaplie taught at home: and quhat impietie it wer to violate the first fundators letter will, and how by a lait act of parliament 1633 all mortificationes sould be applyit to the specificke use allanerlie of the mortifier, any man mey ewidentlie sie.

"8. Lastlie, to considder the producers transgressioun; haueing ther admissiones by the originall fundation, to disclaime the samen in that degrie as to obtrude ane erronious copie of ane contrarie new ane: We that ar professores and the pairtie offendit hes desyrit ane act upone the productione of that copie, that the daites thairof and tenour be neither alterit nor pairit, demanding of them who will byd be this copie, and who saw the originall thairof, or can proue it to haue beine destroyit by our late prelate, or to haue beine unjustlie destroyit; and since it had no witnesses insert bot onlie the pairties, and since it conteinit four or fyw scheitt of paiper, with gryt varietie of articles and sanctiones, and is alledgit to haue beine lost moir than sextein yeires agoe, what judge sall admitt or quhat witnesses memorie may serve to prove verbatim et liniatim of whole contentes of such a lost and forlorne wreit; and for all the former consideratione if they mey not be compted forgers of this new fundation, and by so doing to be infringers of ther originall fundatione, and to haue iniured the sanctiones thairof, quhairby they ar called perjuri infames et inhabiles: it is referrit to the judgement of those whome it concernes."

". . . The lords commissioneris being advysed, and haveand consideration that his majesties designe in directing to thame of the said commision is to restoir the said universitie to the ancient integritie and splendor, and wnderstanding the rentes and revenous of the said college not to be sufficient to prouyd the haill maisteris professours bursares and wtheris fundat in the said originall fundation with competent provisiones, and that the whole present contraversie, whilk is amongis the memberis of the said college, arryses and resultes wpon ane posterior fundation alledgit maid be umquhill king James the sext of blissed memorie, whilk is not extant, bot onlie ane copie not authentick, and ane wther wnsubscryved copie of ane act of parliament ratiefieing the said posterior fundation as is alledgit: thairfor the saids lordis findis it meit for the quyet and setling of the memberis of the said college, that the whole maisteris regentes professours and wther memberis thairof shall posses thair present places functiones and stipends, as thay war in use and possession fra Michaelmes M. sex hundreth threttie and sex, to Michaelmes in the yeir of God M. sex hundreth threttie and sewin yeris, and so to contiuew ay and quhill his majestie be pleased to give forder order in the busines . . ." Nova Fundatio of King's College.

Cum ad pii principis curam et regii muneris solicitudinem pertineat non solum rempublicam ejusque partes rite constituere et ordinare, sed etiam si quid in his sit vel temporis vitio in deterius mutatum, vel negligentia collapsum, vel moribus labefactum, id omne vel ad primam originem revocare, vel in meliorem statum restituere et reformare; cumque id in omnibus reipublicae partibus diligenter faciendum sit, tum maximum in ea quae ad juventutis honestam educationem pertinet, ac proinde reliquis sit initium et seminarium, adeo diligentem curam assiduamque operam desiderat, ut in hujus fere unius recta constitutione sita sit reipublicae salus et incolumitas, et in ejusdem neglectu lapsus et interitus; ac cum maxime ea nos contendere deceat cum Divina Providentia nos iis temporibus ad reipublicae gubernacula produxerit, in quibus evangelii lucem (expulsis Papismi tenebris) Scotiae nostrae praelucere voluerit, nosque imprimis solicitos esse oporteat ut tantum beneficium ad posteros nostros propagetur, quod non alia ratione commodius fieri possit quam proba ejusmodi educatione et recta juventutis informatione. Nos idcirco regiam nostram curam et paternam solicitudinem ad hanc tam utilem tamque necessariam Reipublicae nostrae partem extendere cupientes, post Andreanae et Glasguanae Academiae reformationem et institutionem a nobis ex consilio summorum virorum rite peractam et absolutam, Aberdonense etiam nostrum Regale Collegium non exiguum Reipublicae nostrae in partibus regni nostri borealibus, in literis et moribus recte instituendis seminarium partim nunc primum instituendum et fundandum partim reformandum et restituendum omnino vero ordinandum et instituendum quam optimo fieri possit modo, ex summorum etiam virorum consilio existimavimus. Et quamvis a majoribus nostris Episcoporum Aberdonensium consilio hujus praeclari operis jacta sunt non paenitenda fundamenta, tamen cum illud seculum multa toleraret, quae his nostris temporibus cum clara Evangelii luce non conveniunt, cumque exigui tenuesque sumptus, tunc qui pro temporis ratione alendis illius Collegii membris destinati fuerunt, in hac praetiorum commutatione iisdem sustentandis nullo pacto sufficere valeant, operae praetium duximus huic nostro Gymnasio novis proventibus a nobis munifice aucto, eam legem praescribere quae Dei gloriae, Ecclesiae saluti, Reipublicae, communique nostrorum commodo, ac denique his nostris eruditis temporibus optime inservire posse videatur.

Primum igitur ne huic nostro Gymnasio sumptus et impensa desint, quaecunque a majoribus nostris Gulielmo Elphinstone Episcopo Aberdonensi, seu aliis quibusvis ante nos tributa et concessa sunt, ea omnia rata habemus approbamus et nostra authoritate confirmamus, et quantum in nobis est damus de novo, viz., totas et integras rectorias et vicarias ecclesiarum parochialium de Glenmuick et Abergardaine, de Slaines et Furvie, de Aberluthnot et de Snau, cum omnibus decimis earundem, fructibus, proficuis, redditibus, emolumentis, devoriis, mansis, glebis, terris ecclesiasticis et pertinentibus earundem quibuscunque jacentibus in diocesibus Aberdonensi et Sancti Andreae, et vicecomitatibus Aberdonensi et Kincardinensi respective. Item omnes et singulas terras de Drumlagair, item terras de Bannakettle, Adiell, Berrihill, Collynie, et Andett, croftas quasdam jacentes apud Aberdene, jacentes in comitatibus de Bamf et Aberdene respective. Item omnes reditus subsequentes, viz., viginti libras de baronia de Balhelvie, novemdecim mercas de aquis nostris regiis de Bamf, duodecim libras sex solidos et octo denarios de terris de Oord, Mombray, Blairshinnie et aliis vicinis terris de Boyne, quinque libras de terris de Udach, quatuor libras de Pettie. Item annuos reditus et feudifirmas terrarum hospitalium Sancti Germani jacentium ubicunque intra fines regni Scotiae. Item terras in quibus situm est dictum Collegium, cum hortis et croftis adjacentibus, cum mansis et aedificiis Canonistae, Civilistae, Medici, et Grammatici, cum omnibus aliis et singulis decimis, terrae annuis reditibus, capellaniis, quibuscunque aliis proficuis, quae vel a majoribus nostris, ab episcopis Aberdonensibus vel aliis quibuscunque praedicto Collegio ante tempora nostra concessa, seu a dicto Collegio quovis modo possessa, prout in cartis et donationibus eorundem latius continetur. Quas omnes ratificamus, approbamus, et pro nobis et successoribus nostris perpetuo confirmamus.

Sed quia, ut diximus, praedicti redditus et proventus non modo modici sint idoneum praeceptorum et studiosorum numerum alere, et tantam familiam sustentare in hac rerum omnium caritate et praetiorum commutatione non valebant, Nos nostra beneficentia ex consilio consiliariorum nostrorum eidem Collegio, Magistris, Praeceptoribus, et in eodem studiosis, caeterisque membris ejusdem quae post nominabuntur, dedimus, concessimus, incorporavimus, et ad manum mortuam dimisimus, necnon per praesentes damus, concedimus, incorporamus et ad manum mortuam perpetuo dimittimus, omnes reddĭtus, fructus, decimas, decimas garbales, emolumenta, proventus, aedificia, terras, hortos, ecclesiasticas mansiones et glebas, earum proventus, aliaque quaevis pertinentia Ecclesiae Cathedrali veteris Abredoniae, quae est ecclesia parochialis sancti Macharii, rectoria et vicaria ejusdem, vocaturque Decanatus Ecclesiae Cathedralis de Aberdeene. Item omnes decimas, firmas, annuos redditus, proventusque Ecclesiae de Furvie, quae vocatur rectoria et vicaria de Furvie. Item omnes decimas, redditus, proventus, emolumenta, aedificia, hortos, terras, mansiones, glebas, et cetera quae olim pertinuerunt ad fratres Carmelitanos de Banff. Item, omnes decimas, redditus, proventus, emolumenta, aedificia, hortos, terras, ecclesiasticas mansiones, glebas, et caetera Ecclesiae Divi Petri quae vocatur Ecclesia de Spittal, seu Succentoria de Aberdeene. Item omnes decimas, reditus, proventus, Ecclesiae de Methlick, quae vocatur Rectoria et Vicaria de Methlick. Item Capellanias quas vocant de Vesthal et Falaroul, et trecentas illas mercas quas fratrum Carmelitarum Joannes Chrystison eidem Collegio reliquit. Item omnes annuos redditus, agros, aedificia pertinentia ad Capellaniam Mariae Magdalenae, occupata et possessa per quondam Magistrum Ioannem Kennedy, et omnes annuos redditus qui in communi pertinuerunt olim Capellaniae dicti Collegii, cum omnibus aliis terris, aedificiis, proventibus, decimis, annuis redditibus, feudifirmis, juribus, jurisdictionibus, ac quibuscunque debitis quae praedicto Collegio, Magistris, Regentibus, Bursariis vel membris, vel a majoribus nostris, vel a nobis sive consensu Regentium, sive consilii nostri, seu quovis modo, vel a superioris temporis Episcopis Aberdonensibus vel a quibusvis aliis hactenus fuerunt concessa, donata, vel quovis modo attributa, seu quaecunque dictum Collegium vel personae antehac fundati possident, possederunt, seu quovis modo possidere possint. Quae omnia regia nostra authoritate eidem Collegio membrisque in eo erigendis perpetuo mansura approbamus, ratificamus, et pro nobis, nostrisque successoribus in perpetuum confirmamus.

Quo vero haec nostra sive majorum nostrorum liberalitas recte collocata intelligatur atque hi redditus a nobis nostro Collegio collati rite ad reipublicae Christianae commodum impendantur, Volumus ut in hac parte resectis et amputatis superfluis omnibus et inutilibus quae vel ad personas et Collegii membra, vel ad alia officia muneraque pertinent, et iis omnibus antiquatis, quae vel nostris his temporibus non conveniunt, vel cum clara Evangelii luce (qua nunc per Dei gratiam regnum nostrum illustratur) minus congruunt, hoc nostrum nunc tandem reformatum et renovatum literatorum Collegium viginti duobus ordinariis vel residentibus personis constituatur, Gymnasiarcha quem Principalem vocant, quatuor Regentibus, quorum primus erit Subprincipalis, Praeceptore Grammatico, Oeconomo, duodecem pauperibus studentibus, duobus Servis, altero Principalis, altero Subprincipalis, et Coquo; quorum singulos in suis muneribus obeundis sedulos esse volumus, et pro laboribus honoraria ac stipendia percipere, quo majori alacritate suis officiis invigilent, ac primum quidem omnes viginti duas personas, Preceptore Grammatico excepto, collegialiter vivere, hoc est intra septa Collegii simul et cibum sumere et dormire volumus.

Gymnasiarcham autem, quem Principalem vocant, pium et probum hominem esse imprimis oportet, cui totum Collegium et singula illius membra subesse oporteat; cui in singulas Collegii nostri personas jurisdictionem committimus ordinariam. Is n sacris literis probe institutus, ad aperienda fidei mysteria et reconditos Divini Verbi thesauros idoneus, linguarum etiam gnarus et peritus sit oportet, imprimis vero Hebraice et Syriace, cujus Professorem esse instituimus (linguam enim sacram ut par est promovere inter subditos nostros cupimus ut scripturarum fontes et mysteria rectius aperiantur). Itaque dicto nostro Gymnasiarchae committimus, quo sedulitatis exemplum toti Collegio sua diligentia subministret, ut in dies alternos horam saltem unam praelegendo impendat, quo tempore maxime erit opportunum, alternatim et per vices praelectionem Theologicam seligat ad explicandum Scripturarum recessus, alternatim vero linguam ipsam sacram auditoribus explicabit, cujus praelectioni Regentes omnes et duorum supremorum [sic] interesse volumus; die autem Sabbatino immunem a praelectionibus esse concedimus, quoniam totius septimanae ratio ei ab auditoribus exigenda est, et opera danda formandae ad Machariae parochii populum concionis (nam cum Collegium nostrum ex decimis et proventibus illius Ecclesiae partim sustentetur, exiguum esse duximus ut qui temporalia ministrant spiritualia percipiant, nec pane vitae quod est Dei verbum defraudentur) curam itaque quoad poterit diligentissimam adhibebit Gymnasiarcha ut tunc populum pascat et in recta vitae et morum disciplina contineat singulisque diebus dominicis adhortetur ad pietatem. Resideat vero in dicto Collegio neque inde pedem moveat ad longinquiorem aliquam profectionem, nisi re cum Rectore Academiae, Decano Facultatis et caeteris suis Collegis Regentibus communicata et venia impetrata graviori aliqua de causa, et ejusdem dicti Collegii commodo, nec ultra triduum, venia non impetrata absit.

Quoties vero dictum Gymnasiarchae munus quovis modo vacare contigerit, Regentes qui pro tempore fuerint ejusdem vacationis denunciationem dicti Gymnasiarchae Electoribus ilico facere tenebuntur, ut illi certiores facti alium virum gravem et idoneum qui id muneris obeat sufficere possint, cujusquidem Electionis legittimum tempus erit intra sexaginta dies a denunciatione vacationis dicti muneris. Quod si subscripti Electores distulerint Electionem Gymnasiarchae, tum numerus eorum major, praescripto tempore sexaginta dierum jam exacto, electionem absolvet, idque intra quadraginta dies post exactos priores sexaginta. Examinatio et Electio dicti Gymnasiarchae ad Praefectum seu Primarium novi seu Theologici Collegii in Academia Andraeana, Cancellarium Universitatis Aberdonensis qui est Episcopus Aberdonensis, Rectorem Universitatis, Decanum Facultatis, Subprincipalem Collegii, tres reliquos Regentes ejusdem Collegii, ita ut omnes tres unum tantummodo habeant suffragium, ministrum Ecclesiae Novae Aberdoniae, Gymnasiarcham Collegii Edinensis. Et quemcunque hi omnes aut eorum pars major, una cum Cancellario et uno ex duobus dictis Gymnasiarchis Andraeano et Edinensi, consentientibus votis in unum elegerint, reliquis absentibus et ad diem indictum ubi legittime admoniti fuerint, non comparentibus, illius rata erit Electio. At si nullus praedictorum Gymnasiarcharum duorum adfuerit et consenserit, irrita sit Electio. Quamquidem examinationem, electionem et admissionem procedere volumus Edicto publico valvis Collegii Aberdonensis et Ecclesiarum tam veteris quam novae Urbis per Regentes affixo supra praemonitione triginta dierum ad minimum. Insuper dicti Regentes suo edicto Sanctandraeanos, Glasguenses, Edinburgenses admoneant, ut si qui sint idonei ad munus capessendum, praesto sint ad diem condictum; Quo neque favore neque partium gratia sed virtute et eruditionis praestantia consummetur. Praeferatur tamen peregrinis ab Electoribus, si quis in gremio Collegii Aberdonensis repertus fuerit idoneus ad hoc munus capessendum, Regentium gradibus servatis. In tota hac electione Gymnasiarchae, atque etiam aliorum praeceptorum dicti Collegii, ut nemo sibi suffragari possit, et ad seipsum eligendum suffragium ne habeat, aut si unus aliquis et idem duas fortasse aut plures dictorum Electorum personas sustinebit, volumus ut eo casu unius tantum suffragii jus habeat; neque ulli Electorum jus eligendi aut ferendi suffragia concedatur nisi solenni more prius juranti se bona fide in toto examine et electione absque affectu et personarum respectu versaturum. Quoniam eruditum hominem quaerimus cujus humeris onus totius Collegii incumbat, eique insuper Ecclesiae Macharianae curam demandamus, isque neque labores sustinere neque sumptibus sufficere possit nisi honestis praemiis invitetur, idcirco prae victu et honorario ei et famulo suo constituimus in praesentiarum pro ratione reddituum, quos jam habet Collegium, viginti quatuor bollas farinae avenariae seu hordei, et ducentas mercas monetae Scotiae; et ubi quid accreverit redditibus Collegii, transactis damnosis locationibus vel alio quovis modo, tum primum superaddentur praefato Principali aliae viginti quatuor bollae farinae avenariae seu hordei, ita ut in anona percipiat tres chalderas seu quadraginta octo bollas, quibus integre perceptis ex supra dicta summa ducentarum mercarum detrahentur ex annuo salario dicti Principalis triginta tres mercae quinque asses aut solidi et sex denarii, si aliter Collegii sumptus ferre non possint. Et sic quidem Principalem nostri Collegii, quem pro totius vitae suae curriculo eligimus, vitam instituere volumus, qui si negligens fuerit in suo munere, et si quae sint ei per specialem electionem injuncta non impleverit, neque resipiscere velit, cum ter admonitus fuerit per Cancellarium, Academiae Rectorem, Decanum Facultatis, Collegii Regentes, vel eorum majorem partem, sed si in malos mores proclivis fuerit, iisdem auctoribus exauctorabitur quos prius in electione locum habere decrevimus.

Quatuor insuper Regentes putamus dare et commodo Gymnasii fore necessarios, qui juventuti instituendae praesint et Principali auxilientur, quorum unus proximus post Principalem Subprincipalis dicitur cui quarta classis commissa est. Hic ut Principalis ad vitae suae spatium in eo munere permanebit, de quo postea. Horum quatuor Regentium primae et infimae classi praefectus Graecae Linguae institutionem profitebitur, addita enarratione quam facillimorum et optimorum authorum utriusque linguae, eosdemque frequenti styli exercitio, sex primis mensibus Latinae compositioni, reliquis sequentibus Graecae inscriptioni assuefaciet. Proximus praecepta inventionis, dispositionis, et elocutionis quam possit facili methodo suos auditores sequenti anno docebit, usumque praeceptorum ex optimis utriusque linguae authoribus praeceptis adjunget, adolescentesque tum scribendo tum declamando exercebit, ut in utriusque linguae facultate pares ad Philosophiae praecepta capessenda magis idonei evadere possint. Tertius Arithmeticae et Geometriae Rudimenta, selectionem ex Aristotelis Organo Logico, una cum ejusdem libris Ethicων et Politicων e Graeco contextu enarrabit, quibus et librorum Marci Tullii de Officiis ad mores melius reformandos et linguam Latinam locupletandam explicationem adjunget.

Eligentur autem hi tres Regentes vel eorum aliquis, quoties vacare ejusmodi locum contigerit, per Universitatis Cancellarium, Rectorem, Decanum Facultatis, Collegii Principalem, Subprincipalem, Novae Abredoniae Ministrum, tres Regentes ejusdem Collegii (ita ut omnes tres tantummodo unum habeant suffragium); aut sin minus omnes adesse una possint, volumus ex praenominatis electoribus quatuor, i.e., numerum qui quatuor suffragia compleat, ad minimum interesse, et ex his quatuor Principalem Collegii una cum Ministro Novae Abredoniae, alioquin irritam fore electionem. Licebit unicuique horum trium in suo officio permanere quamdiu assidui et diligentes fuerint, modo nihil faciant quod exauctorationem mereat. Unicuique horum Regentium pro annuo victu et sallario, prout Collegii reditus nunc se habent, unam chalderam farinae avenaticae, una cum quadraginta septem libris et septem decem solidis monetae regni nostri assignamus. Ubi autem quid accreverit Collegii redditibus, vel exactis damnosis locationibus, tum superaddi unicuique horum volumus octo bollas farinae avenaticae seu hordei, et de summa quadraginta septem librarum et septem decem solidorum detrahi septem libras et septem decem solidos, ita ut unusquisque horum trium tunc temporis habeat pro victu et sallario viginti quatuor bollas farinae avenaticae vel hordei et quadraginta libras.

Quartus Regens, quem Subprincipalem nominamus, quique in eo munere quamdiu vixerit durabit, vir erit pius, modestus, doctus. Physiologiam omnem, eamque de natura animalium utpote inprimis necessariam de Graeco Aristotelis contextu enarrabit. Geographiam etiam et Astrologiam profitebitur, nec non generalem etiam Cosmographiam et temporum a condito mundo supputationem, quae res ad alias disciplinas et Historiarum cognitionem non parum lucis adfert, quibus sub anni finem sanctae linguae praecepta, una cum eorundem nonnulla praxi adjunget. Hujus electio erit penes Cancellarium Universitatis, Rectorem, Decanum Facultatis, Principalem Collegii, Ecclesiae Novae Aberdoniae Ministrum, tres Regentes ejusdem Collegii, ita ut hi tres unum tantum habeant suffragium; aut si minus una omnes adesse possint, volumus ex praenominatis electoribus quatuor, i.e., qui quatuor suffragia tenent, ad minimum interesse, et ex his quatuor Principalem Collegii una cum Ministro Novae Aberdoniae, alioquin irritam fere electionem; fietque ejus electio infra mensem a die vacationis edicto publico a Principali affixo super valvis Collegii et Ecclesiarum Novae et Veteris Aberdoniae. Quoniam vero hujus quarti Regentis qui et Subprincipalis dicitur, opera et laboribus, Colophonem philosophico studio imponi volumus, ac pileo coronatos adolescentes ad graviora studia alacrius contendere, quin etiam Procuratio Gymnasii ejusque cura et disciplina ad eum praecipue pertinebunt in Principalis absentia qualicunque vel distractione propter Ecclesiae Macharianae administrationem et curam, eidem cum suo famulo pro annuo victu et sallario assignamus, ut Collegii redditus nunc se habent, viginti quatuor bollas farinae avenaticae et octoginta libras monetae regni nostri Scotiae, ubi autem quid accreverit redditibus Collegii, exactis damnosis locationibus, tum superaddentur illi aliae viginti quatuor bollae farinae avenaticae seu hordei, et ex praedicta summa 80 lib. detrahentur 13 lib. 6 solidi et 8 nummi, ita ut praedictus subprincipalis habeat tunc temporis pro annuo victu et sallario tres chalderas farinae avenaticae seu hordei et 66 lib. 13 solidos 4 nummos.

Quatuor autem hos Regentes nolumus (prout in Regni nostri Academiis olim mos fuit) novas professiones quotannis immutare, quo factum fuit ut dum multa profiterentur, in paucis periti invenirentur; verum volumus ut in eadem professione se exerceant, ut adolescentes qui gradatim ascendunt, dignum suis studiis et ingeniis praeceptorem reperire queant. Quod si e re Gymnasii fuerit, idque Gymnasiarchae, Subprincipali, Rectori, Cancellario, Decano Facultatis visum fuerit, aut ex his tribus nimirum Principali, Subprincipali, Decano Facultatis, tres reliqui Regentes, ex eorum decreto, mutare inter se provincias possunt: Qui etiam Authores juventuti proponendos singulis annis praescribent, ita tamen ut omnes authores iis linguis quibus primum scripserunt, studiosis enarrentur. Volumus etiam praefatos nostros Regentes eorum curae commissos docendo, scribendo, declamando, disputando, quam diligentissime in palaestra literaria exerceant, praesertim vero duarum infimarum classium studiosos quotidianae compositioni assuefieri, horamque unam quotidie ad minimum hac in re consumere. Item post exactos primos octodecem menses, studiosos omnes singulis mensibus, publicis declamationibus tam Graece quam Latine diligenter exercere; utque hac pia emulatione magis inflammentur studia, studiosos omnes in decurias distribui, et singulo quoque mense ita censuram agi ut doctissimus quisque ceteris omnibus praeferatur. Ad haec volumus neminem in studiosorum numerum in primum ordinem admitti, nisi qui diligenti exploratione per Decanum, Principalem, Subprincipalem, tres Regentes, Praeceptores utriusque Scholae Grammatices, aut eorum alterum, ad id juratos omnes, dignus eo ordine censebitur. Singulis quoque annis ordinum promotiones per gradus progressionis fieri volumus, ita ut primi ordinis studiosi ad secundum transeant, secundi ad tertium, tertii ad quartum, quarti denique, absoluto studio philosophico, laurea magisterii donentur. In quibus gradibus hoc diligenter caveatur, ne quisquam indignus promotione in superiorem ordinem transeat, nisi justo examine per Decanum Facultatis, Principalem, Subprincipalem, tres Regentes, Magistros Scholarum Novae et Veteris Aberdoniae aut eorum alterum, ad id juratos publice omnes per eos habito. Siquis autem per eos promotione indignus censebitur, in eodem quo prius permanebit ordine, donec dignus promotione ad superiorem per eos judicabitur. Has examinationes et promotiones et in Collegium nostrum admissiones, singulis annis Calendis Octobris inchoare volumus. Singulis diebus Dominicis in singulis classibus lectionem sacram ex novo Testamento proponi volumus, ita ut primae classi Evangelium Divi Lucae, secundae Acta Apostolorum, tertiae Epistolam Divi Pauli ad Romanos, quartae Epistolam ad Hebraeos sui praeceptores mane hora sexta perlegant, hora vero quarta pomeridiana eandem praelectionem a suis quisque discipulis exigat. Potestas autem emendandi et corrigendi dictos Regentes erit penes dictum Principalem et Subprincipalem, quibus etiam potestas erit eosdem Collegio ejiciendi, si postpositis eorum officiis, ter, ut dictum est, admoniti resipiscere noluerint, cognita tamen causa et adhibito consilio Rectoris et Decani Facultatis.

Porro paupertatis habita cura, et quod multi prae inopia a bonis literis deterreantur, adjunximus duodecem pauperes studentes quos Bursarios vocant, iisque singulis assignamus pro annuo victu et ex redditibus dicti Collegii triginta libras. Eos paupertatis nomine commendatos esse volumus, quibus parentes et amici prae inopia victum et amictum suppeditare non queant, eosque ingenii praestantia et grammaticae facultatis peritia, bonisque moribus valere. Electio, admissio et collatio dictorum Bursariorum erit ad hanc formam. Principalis, vel ipso absente Subprincipalis, publico programmate valvis Collegii affixo, viginti dies ante Calendas Octobris, omnibus beneficium expetentibus denunciabit, ut ad eum diem se sistant examini per Rectorem, Decanum Facultatis, Novae Aberdoniae Ministrum, Principalem, Subprincipalem, tres Regentes quibus concedimus unum suffragium, juratos omnes, quique diligenti exploratione habita, paupertatis et doctrinae nomine eo beneficio maxime egere, eoque maxime digni reperiantur, in Bursariorum album inscribantur; habita tamen ejus privilegii ratione, quod piae memoriae Episcopus Gulielmus Elphinston sui cognominis pauperibus duobus in prima Collegii erectione reservavit. Nil quod aliud privilegium aliis quibusvis erga hoc nostrum Collegium beneficio merito debeatur, quale illud est quod familiae et cognomento Mri. Roberti Maitland, cujus opera facta est accessio Decanatus ad hoc nostrum Collegium, debetur, cujus cognatos et cognomines iniquum esset praeterire, quin et eorum pauperum imprimis ratio habenda est, ex quorum parochiis sumptus annui nostro Collegio suppeditantur, et id quidem caeteris paribus ut aliis praeferantur. Rectoris, Decani, Gymnasiarchae, Regentium et Electorum cura erit providere ne divites loco pauperum admittantur, neve fuci alvearia depascantur, sed eos tantum in Gymnasium recipere qui Patriae ornamento et Ecclesiae usui esse poterunt. Hos autem pauperes nostros humilitatis et obedientiae exemplar esse volumus, et per omnia praeceptoribus morem gerere, quod ni fecerint, potestatem facimus dicto Gymnasiarchae et Praeceptoribus eos puniendi, et pro ratione delicti usque ad eorum ejectionem e dicto Collegio inclusive, si propter eorum contumaciam id promeriti fuerint. Hi longis togis induti sint, praecincti zona pellicea alba ad quatuor digitos lata, et horum erit hebdomadatim et vicissim omnium in Collegio dormientium cubicula, hora quinta circumire nempe matutina, studiosos ad studia excitare, lumenque hyeme afferre, nec non alia tenuiora ministeria in aula prandii aut coenae tempore (ut in ferculis et dapibus mensae imponendis et aqua ministranda) obire, et ejusmodi alia quae sine studiorum suorum dispendio a Gymnasiarcha caeterisque Praeceptoribus illis injungentur; quin et ut Janitorum vice vicissim fungantur, donec proventibus Academicae auctis, certus aliquis ad hoc officium eligatur. Horum ad Collegium ingressus Calendis Octobris sit, permaneantque in studio literario et Gymnasii sumptibus ut dictum est alantur, totis quatuor annis, quod tempus idoneum judicamus ad studium philosophicum consummandum et lauream adipiscendam, quibus exactis novi Bursarii provideantur, donec iterum ad metam decurrerint.

Oeconomum autem et Provisorem hominem bonum et industrium requirimus, cui salus Collegii imprimis curae sit. Hic initio suae administrationis cautionem praestabit, res Collegii salvas fore, seque bona fide administraturum. Penes eum erit omnes proventus et redditus Collegii qualescunque colligere, diem dicere debitoribus, convenire in judicio nomine Collegii, et caetera legitime peragere. Ejus erit tempestive ex praeceptorum arbitrio Collegio providere in iis quae ad victum pertinent et fori quotidie curam agere in iis emendis quae ad Collegii sustentationem pertinent: fructus et redditus Collegii perceptos, Principali, Subprincipali, tribus praeceptoribus, adeoque omnibus fundatis personis, distribuere tempestive quodcunque in hac nostra fundatione assignamus, et bona fide exsolvere ad certos anni terminos respective (prius tamen subducto pretio victus dictarum fundatarum personarum) summam pecuniarum ad duos anni terminos, per duas aequales partes ad festum Martini in hyeme et festum Pentecostes. Annonam autem quotannis ante Calendas Martii nec prius Principali aut Subprincipali quam infimis fundatis personis satisfiat, omnibus sine discrimine, pro rata cujusque parte mature debita adjuncta et stipendia persolvat. Quorum omnium singulis septimanis Principali, Subprincipali, et reliquis Praeceptoribus rationem reddere tenebitur, ne qua in re minima fraus fiat fundatis personis, qui etiam negligentiam Economi et incuriam si ulla fuerit arguent et castigabunt, ad haec etiam adhibitis, ubi representaverit, Rectore et Decano Facultatis in consilium, qui de remedio in omnibus Collegii imminentibus damnis mature provideant. Electio autem Economi fiat ad eam formam quam in eligendis tribus inferioribus Regentibus praescripsimus, qui in eo munere ad minimum per tres annos permanebit. Et quia hujus partis sunt tempestive providere in iis quae ad victum pertinent omnium membrorum Collegii, ut justo et equabili pretio commodius id praestare possit, volumus ut singulis annis Calendis viz. Octobris, ex consilio Rectoris, Decani Facultatis, Principalis, Praefecti, et Ballivorum novae et veteris Aberdoniae, adjunctis una aliis quatuor ex Senatu novae Aberdoniae, pretia pro cibariis omnium fundatorum Collegii, tum etiam aliorum convivarum in Collegio qui non sint ex fundatione, pro ratione caritatis et vilitatis eorum quae ad victum pertinent, estimentur et constituantur, simulque quis dapium et ferculorum numerus, quae potus, et panis mensura, qualitas, quisque tractationis modus praescribatur. Quorum consilium hac in parte dictum nostrum Oeconomum observare et sequi volumus, et quia crebro solent fieri pretiorum commutationes, ne quid damni vel nostro Collegio vel dicto Economo, volumus ut ter singulis annis Calendis viz. Februarii, Maij, et Augusti postea idem Oeconomus, ex consilio Rectoris, Decani Facultatis, Principalis, et Magistrorum Collegii, adjunctis duobus civibus seu Ballivis seu consiliariis Novae Urbis Aberdoniae, mensuram prius pretio constituto pro cibariis augere vel minuere pro rerum caritate et vilitate possit. Quoniam autem variis curis et occupationibus distrahi Provisorem nostrum oportebit, propter ea quae necessaria ad recipiendos Collegii proventus ab eodem impenduntur, quae illi in rationibus deduci aequum est, ei salarii nomine assignamus et annumeramus pro praesenti statu reddituum Collegii, sex bollas farinae avenaticae et sexaginta sex libras tredecem solidos et quatuor nummos, auctis autem Collegii redditibus, exactisque damnosis locationibus, pro annuo salario percipiat ex Collegii redditibus decem et sex bollas farinae avenaticae et quinquaginta libras monetae regni nostri Scotiae.

Volumus Praeceptorem Grammaticae virum esse bonum et doctum et apprime versatum in Latina et Graeca literatura tum carmine quum soluta oratione; Cujus electio erit ad eam formam quam praescripsimus in electione trium Regentium. Non astringetur ut collegialiter vivat, sed pro suo arbitrio vivat ubi commodior vivendi occasio illi erit oblata, sive in Collegio, sive extra septa Collegii. Providebit Gymnasiarcha sumptibus Collegii Scholam commodam extra Collegium in gratiam juniorum illius curae commissorum, una cum cubiculo intra septa Collegii dicto Scholae Grammatices magistro. Huic praeceptori pro annuo stipendio assignamus et annumeramus ex redditibus Collegii quinquaginta libras, cum accessione quinque mercarum quibus olim gaudebat.

Coquus etiam idoneus eligatur per Principalem, Subprincipalem, Regentes et Provisorem, qui praeparandis cibariis et excolendo horto Gymnasii inserviat. Huic pro laboribus et victu allocamus triginta libras; olera suis sumptibus suppeditabit in usum membrorum dicti Collegii; curabitque hortum et deambulacra munda fore in usum magistrorum dicti Collegii; commoda reliqua horti suis usibus applicare licebit.

Reparationi Collegii (ut aedificia sint bene tuta) quotannis ex primis ejusdem fructibus quadraginta ad minimum libras monetae regni Scotiae, quas in aerarium seponi jubemus, et ubi quod exactis damnosis locationibus vel morte possessorum earum rerum quae ad Collegium pertinent, aut alio quovis modo redditibus Collegii accreverit, primam ejus partem reliquae reparationi et necessariis sumptibus per Oeconomum in colligendis Collegii fructibus et redditibus faciendis impendi volumus. Reliquam omnem honorariis Principalis, Subprincipalis, Regentium, et Oeconomi accrescere pro rata cuique quotannis distribui ex consilio Cancellarii, Rectoris, Decani Facultatis, et Ministri Novae Aberdoniae.

Et quo liberius quisque in hac Academia suo officio invigilare possit, cavemus ne quis magistrorum aliquid aliud publicum munus extra septa Collegii sibi accersat, praeter quod in hac nostra fundatione et erectione injunximus, adeo ut neque Rectoris neque Decani Facultatis munere quisquam eorum fungatur.

Quod si cuivis fundatarum personarum uxorem ducere contigerit, cavemus ne uxor ejus, filiae aut famulae intra septa Collegii nostri versentur, nedum ullo modo habitent aut pernoctent.

Quo autem hoc nostrum Gymnasium et literarum cultura et morum elegantia magis efflorescat, uberiores fructus haec nostra Institutio proferat, volumus tam omnes Collegii nostri fundatas personas quam confluentes studiosos severa morum disciplina contineri, et ne intermissione studiorum et moribus et literis damnum inferatur, omnes consuetas olim a studiis vacationes aboleri penitus. Vetamus etiam ne in promotionibus ad quemcunque gradum ulla sumptuosiora convivia agitentur, quicquam admittatur, quod praescriptam in Gymnasio disciplinam quovis modo vel possit removere vel solvere.

Imprimis autem cavemus ne quisquam studiosorum, Praeceptoribus exceptis, arma quaevis seu ad inferendam seu ad propulsandam injuriam apta, utpote loricam, thoracem ferream, cassidem, chirothecas ferreas, gladium, pugionem, machaeram, frameam, sclopos et id genus armorum habeat, aut quovis modo iis utatur in Collegio aut extra Collegium; sed scalpellis tantum cultellisque cibis scindendis commodis solummodo utantur. Qui contra fecerit primum damno et confiscatione armorum per Principalem aut Subprincipalem aut Praeceptores mulctetur, secundo delinquens ex disciplina Gymnasii in publicis scholis verberibus castigetur, quod si tertio hanc legem violaverit, tanquam indignus studiosorum numero ejiciatur.

Praedictae quoque omnes personae fundatae intra septa Gymnasii et vescantur et dormiant; siquis autem Bursariorum venia non impetrata, ut dictum est, extra Collegium dormierit, et admonitus et castigatus non resipiscat, beneficio Bursae statim privetur. Studiosorum vero reliqui qui cubiculis intra septa Collegii fruuntur, in iisdem cubent et pernoctent, si secus fecerint cubiculis suis removeantur; iidem extra Collegium victitantes nunquam nisi destinatis horis ad cibum capiendum extra Collegium reperiantur. Si extra cubaverint ad sextam statim matutinam ingrediantur, nec ante nonam Collegio exeant, reversis a jentaculo ante decimam, ante duodecimam non licebit exire, post prandium vero qui in Aberdonia veteri victitant hora prima, qui vero in nova ante secundam pomeridianam Collegium repetant et ingrediantur, in eoque commorabuntur ad sextam vespertinam, nisi ludendi venia omnibus concedatur, tum autem simul egressi ab aliquo Praeceptorum (qui hebdomadatim hanc curam sustinebunt) et deducentur et una reducentur, neque ludendi tempus ultra duas horas ab egressu e Collegio protrahetur, ita ut possint opportune ad lectiones redire, hinc etiam praeceptori hanc curam injungimus ut hora quinta matutina et nona vespertina omnia cubicula invisat.

Volumus etiam studiosos omnes summa concordia pacifice inter se vivere, neminem alteri injuriam verbo vel facto inferre, Latino aut Graeco sermone uti, ab inhonesto et impudico sermone, ab execrationibus, devovationibus, omnibusque blasphemiis abstinere; horis sacris, concionibus, precibus, sacris lectionibus, et Scripturarum interpretationi, quam prophetiam vocamus, praescriptis quam diligentissime interesse; in omnibus denique quae ad disciplinam Collegii pertinent, legibus morem gerere, quae a Gymnasiarcha ex consilio collegarum latae sunt vel in posterum ferentur; quibus et potestatem fecimus statuta honesta ad disciplinam nostri Gymnasii sartam tectam conservandam, prout occasio tulerit, et pro re nata condendi et constituendi.

Qui vero ad Magisterii lauream jam promoti, adhuc tamen intra Gymnasium vivere constituerint, ejusdem disciplinae legibus subsint, studiorumque rationem Principali et reliquis ejus Collegis reddant, quod si extra Gymnasium degentes lectionibus tantum publicis vel privatis interesse cupiant, cum omni modestia, nec ullo malo exemplo ingrediantur et egrediantur, et reliquorum studia quovis modo remorentur, risusve exemplo noceant; si secus fecerint, Collegio prohibeantur.

Quia hactenus damnosis locationibus Gymnasium nostrum plurimum detrimenti accepit, statuimus et ordinamus nullum locationem sive emphyteosin vel feudifirmam, sive in annos plures vel pauciores, aut agrorum aut decimarum, aut aedificiorum aut quarumcunque rerum, validam et ratam fore quae non habeat expressum assensum et consensum Cancellarii, Rectoris, Decani, Principalis et Regentium simul congregatorum, testificatum et approbatum singulis ipsorum chirographis et sigillo communi dicti Collegii, una cum subscriptione ministri Novae Aberdoniae; alioque irrita sit deinceps locatio.

Et ut hae omnes diligentius observentur, ordinamus ut hoc nostrum Collegium ter quotannis per Cancellarium, Rectorem, et Decanum Facultatis utpote Calendis Februarii, Junii et Octobris invisatur et lustretur, ut si quid sive in doctrina sive in disciplina seu redditibus neglectum vel corruptum fuerit, eorum admonitione et consilio emendari et corrigi possit.

Imprimis vero de fidei et religionis professione diligenter inquiratur, et cum hic sit Satanae astus ut omni modo conetur juventutem ab evangelii professione denuo ad papismi tenebras (a quibus per Dei gratiam nostrum regnum liberatum est) abducere, stricte mandamus ut singuli qui in hanc Academiam fuerint cooptati, fidei professionem edant, eam nimirum quae a verbo Dei petita et transcripta a nobis in regni nostri conventibus edita et publicata est, idque semel ad minimum quotannis. Imprimis vero dum admittuntur in Collegium, singuli apud Principalem Albo Universitatis inscribantur, Rectori et, dum ad gradum aliquem promoveantur, Decano Facultatis fidem et religionem puram palam profiteantur, in eaque professione se mansuros sincere polliceantur. Admissi in Academiam studiosi, non tantum in studiis diligentes, in moribus probos, sed erga Praeceptores et publicos ministros Collegii nostri gratos se praebeant; itaque studiosorum quisque Praeceptori proprio Minervale persolvet ex arbitrio et estimatione Praeceptorum, ita ut procerum et insignioris nobilitatis liberi, sex libras, inferioris ordinis nobilitatis filii quatuor libras, agricolarum filii et mercatorum mediocrium atque artificum quadraginta solidos numerare jubeantur; ab his tributis pauperes omnino sint liberi; Communi Apparitori singuli quatuor solidos in anno. In examinationibus et promotionibus singuli in commune Collegii aerarium haec conferant, in primo gradu primique anni examinatione sex solidos octo denarios, in secundo tredecim solidos quatuor denarios, in tertio viginti solidos, in quarto et ultimo triginta solidos, ita ut ab his omnibus pauperes sint immunes. Qui vero pauperes sint habendi, praeceptorum judicium et estimatio erit.

Quia vero multa in hac nostra Academia Rectori ejusdem et Decano Facultatis permisimus, volumus ut singulis annis hi Magistratus eligantur. Rector sit vir gravis pius juris et aequitatis consultor et peritus; ei sit in omnes Academiae inscriptos quos suppositos vocamus, ordinaria jurisdictio, celebrioribus Academiae conventibus, praesertim in electionibus, juxta ea quae praescripta sunt intersit, easque actiones, absente praesertim Cancellario, moderetur, eaque omnia gerat, agat, et exerceat, quae Rector Andreanae vel Glasguensis Academiae, lege more et consuetudine gerere agere vel exercere posse vel debere intelligitur. Eligatur per omnes Academiae suppositos in quatuor nationes (ita ut Aberdoniae diocesis propter frequentiorem numerum in duas nationes secetur, Marriensem et Buchanensem, Marriae Gariocha adjungatur, quod superest a Doverna amni Buchaniae cedat) reliquum regni quod ad septentrionem montis Grampii est, Moraviensis nationis nomine contineatur; ultra montem Grampium ad austrum vergens Angusiensis natio dicatur. Harum nationum singuli sint Procuratores, qui Rectorem ejusque assessores eligant. Electus Rector jurabit se fideliter et diligenter eo munere usurum, jus aequabile omnibus citra personarum respectum ullum bona fide administraturum. In electionibus eadem fide ex animi sententia et in commodum reipublicae et ecclesiae suffragium laturum, et Academiae commodis, salva pietate licet, obnixe fauturum, neque unquam illum scientem aut volentem repugnaturum, denique Rempublicam hanc literarum ornaturum et aucturum.

Decanus Facultatis iisdem comitiis eligatur, sed per Rectorem, Cancellarium, Gymnasiarcham, quatuor Regentes et novae Aberdoniae ministrum, ita ut Gymnasiarcha cum ministro novae urbis semper ejus electioni intersint. Hic sit pius, literatus, nec tantum in humanioribus quas appellant disciplinis, sed etiam in omni philosophia versatus, qui annuis examinationibus et promotionibus intersit et praesit, ut ab examinatoribus jusjurandum fidelis operae in his praestandis exigat. Curam doctrinae et diligentiae praeceptorum habeat, videat ne ejus rei neglectu Academia quid detrimenti capiat, in electionibus incorruptum suffragium et e republica ferat, ea denique omnia exerceat quae in Andreana Academia ad Decani Facultatis liberalium artium munus officiumve pertinere intelliguntur. Juret se fideliter eo munere usurum, bona fide et citra personarum respectum juxta Assessorum et Examinatorum judicia, et ex sui animi sententia, in promotionibus et gradibus pronunciaturum, Collegii et Academiae commoda, quantum salva pietate licet, promoturum, ea denique omnia diligenter acturum quae Academiae Andreanae vel alterius cujusvis laudabilis Academiae Decano ex officio incumbere intellexerit, et e republica Christiana et literaria esse certe cognoverit.

Volumus denique hoc nostrum Collegium et Academiam Aberdonensem omnibus immunitatibus et privilegiis quae a majoribus nostris aut nobis aut aliis quovis modo concessa sunt ulli aliarum Academiarum in regno nostro aut alibi ubicunque gentium gaudere et frui, modo dictae immunitates et privilegia huic nostrae Erectioni non repugnaverint.

Outline of the Nova Fundatio.

King James VI., deeming it the duty of a sovereign to remove such abuses as arise within his kingdom, especially in connection with the instruction of youth; and desirous of extending to the King's College of Aberdeen the reformation which has been instituted in the Universities of S. APPENDIX III.

ACADEMIC OATHS AT KING'S COLLEGE.

The oldest form of Oath that has been preserved is appended to Dunbar's Foundation of 1531. It was taken by entrants, and runs as follows:—

"Ego A. B. tactis sacris Dei evangeliis juramentum presto corporale me omnem obedientiam et reverentiam debitam universitatis cancellario ejusdem rectori et collegii hujus principali exhibiturum omnia statuta et constitutiones que in primeva collegii hujus fundatione continentur in quantum cum vera et orthodoxa religione in ecclesia hac palam proposita et stabilita consistere possunt (nisi forte aliter cancellario universitatis aliisque legitimis superioribus in quibusdam permittere visum fuerit) inviolabiter observaturum singula dicti collegii jura et privilegia defensurum ejusdemque commodum et utilitatem in omnibus juxta posse meum procuraturum. Ita me Deus adjuvet."

In the "Leges Veteres de novo promulgatae anno 1641" appear two modified forms of the Matriculation Oath, from which the reference to "vera et orthodoxa religio" has been removed.

"Ego A. B. collegio regio Aberdonensi nomen me dare profiteor, meque honestis et salubribus ejus legibus sedulo et fideliter obtemperaturum, commoda ejusdem in quibus salva pietate et officio licet, pro virili procuraturum, nunquam denique illi licite agenti adversaturum sed obnixe fauturum quantum tenuitatem meam divina gratia juvet sancte promitto, spondeo, stipulor."

"Ego A. B. collegio regio Aberdonensi nomen me dare profiteor, sicque divinum numen mihi propitium opto, ut ego honestis ejusdem legibus obtemperaturum praeceptoribus ejusdem debitam reverentiam et obedientiam exhibiturum ejusque commodis in quibus licet obnixe fauturum me sancte coram Deo polliceor, promitto juro et spondeo, Deumque ultorem si sciens et volens fefellero non recuso."

In a somewhat later undated edition of these "Leges," the Oath does not occur; but there is the following note:—

"Solebant studiosi in hasce leges jurare, sed non desideramus juramento astringere. Sed est juramentum quod praestare solebant studiosi:—

"Ego A. B. academiae Aberdonensi nomen me dare profiteor, meque honestis ejus legibus jam latis sedulo obtemperaturum, praeceptoribus ejusdem debitam reverentiam et obedientiam exhibiturum, ejusque commodis in quibus licet, obnixe fauturum me sancte polliceor, spondeo, juro. Amen."

The Graduation Oath, however, survived to a recent period. As mentioned in the Preface, no Album of Graduates is extant of earlier date than that [A] beginning in 1600. On the initial fly-leaf are engrossed two variants of the Oath taken by Masters at that period.

"Ego A. B. coram omniscio et omnipotente Deo, religionem reformatam, et fidem in ecclesia hac Scoticana nunc palam propositam, ab omnibus et singulis pontificiorum et aliorum quorumcunque haeresibus erroribus hominum inventis ac cultibus idolatricis longe abhorrentem, unicam solam orthodoxam (prout in puro Dei verbo, foedere nationali Scoticano, trium nationum Scotiae Angliae et Hiberniae solenni confederatione, fidei confessione publica, et catechismo breviori et prolixiori, partibus uniformitatis, continetur) ad extremum usque vitae halitum, sincere (si Deus dederit) me professurum, spondeo, voveo, juro. Insuper academiae huic almae parenti (cui hanc ingenii culturam debeo), nutritia uti potero liberaliter me relaturum promitto; quod si fidem sciens et volens fefellero, arcanorum cordis recessuum scrutatorem, Deum ultorem et vindicem non recuso. Ita me Deus adjuvet."

"Ego A. B. coram omniscio et omnipotenti Deo, religionem et fidem in ecclesia Scoticana ex puro Dei verbo palam propositam, ab omnibus pontificiorum et quorumcunque aliorum haeresibus longe abhorrentem, unicam et solam orthodoxam, ad extremum usque vitae halitum, sincere et ex animo professurum me, spondeo, voveo, juro. Insuper academiae huic almae parenti (cui hanc ingenii culturam debeo), nutricia uti potero, liberaliter relaturum me eadem fide solenniter promitto. Quod si fidem sciens et volens fefellero, arcanorum cordis recessuum scrutatorem, Deum ultorem et vindicem non recuso. Ita me Deus adjuvet."

A greatly modified form seems to have been in use in 1642 (Album E).

"Juramentum quo sese astringunt academiae regiae Aberdonensis alumni, priusquam laurea magisteriali donati fuerint, anno 1642.

"Ego A. B. siquidem non solum beneficium educationis in literis et cursu philosophico, sed etiam alimenti et sustentationis in collegio regio Aberdonensi hucusque habuerim, pro quibus beneficiis officium gratitudinis realiter me debere agnosco: Idcirco solenniter jam juro, et fideliter per Dei maxime nomen promitto, voveo, spondeo, quandocunque me Dominus vel in patria vel extra eandem potentem reddiderit, me in gratitudinis debitae signum secundum posse pro beneficiis predictis in me collatis liberaliter relaturum in Dei gloriam et academiae hujus emolumentum, sciensque et volens, nullum ingratitudinis signum contra eandem unquam expressurum. In quibus si fidem fefellero meipsum (quod absit) infamem et perjurum agnosco, Deumque, quem antea testem, tunc judicem et vindicem non recuso."

But the Oath as given in Middleton's Appendix to Spotswood (1677), p. 26, resembles rather the earlier form.

"Ego A. B. coram omniscio et omnipotenti Deo, religionem et fidem solam et unicam in orthodoxam ecclesia Scoticana palam propositam professurum me, et ab omnibus pontificiorum et aliorum quorumcunque haeresibus longe abhorrentem, spondeo, voveo, juro. Insuper universitati huic, almae parenti, cui hanc ingenii culturam debeo, liberaliter relaturum me nutritiam quam potero, eadem fide solemniter promitto. Quod si fidem sciens et volens fefellero, arcanorum cordis recessuum scrutatorem Deum ultorem et vindicem non recuso. Ita me adjuvet Deus."

The Oath administered to the students at King's College on obtaining the Degree of M.A. (circa 1837) was in the following terms (First Report of the Aberdeen Universities' Commissioners of 1836-37, p. 75):—

"Ego coram omniscio et omnipotente Deo, doctrinam et fidem Christianam quousque Dei verbo palam proponitur ab omnibus haeresibus longe abhorrentem, publice profiteor. Insuper academiae huic almae parenti, cui hanc ingenii culturam debeo, nutricia (uti potero) liberaliter relaturum, solemniter promitto."

The corresponding Oath taken at Marischal College ran thus:—

"Ego testor Deum omnipotentem, me puram religionem Christianam profiteri; Papae Romani tyrannidem abhorrere, omnesque Romanas haereses odio habere. Deinde huic academiae, cui ingenii culturam debeo, benevolentiam, quam potero, me relaturum, sancte promitto."

Regarding these Oaths, the Commissioners reported (p. 25):—

"The Oath differs in the two Universities. In Marischal College it is directly calculated to exclude Roman Catholics. In King's College the terms of the Oath are more general, and therefore less exceptionable. We humbly recommend that both of these Oaths should be abolished. It is an important feature of the Scottish Universities that no religious test is required from the students, but that their Colleges are equally open to all classes, whether Churchmen or Dissenters, and we can see no good reason why the same principle should not be extended to Graduates. We differ widely from those who are of opinion that religious instruction should be excluded from such seminaries, and we intend to offer to your Majesty some suggestions on this subject in a future Report; but we do not think that the interests of religion can be promoted by the injustice of excluding any class of your Majesty's subjects, either from the instruction or the honours of an University, on account of their religious creed."

The Reports of the 1836-37 Commissioners gave rise to no legislation; and in the Ordinances of the Commissioners under the Universities (Scotland) Act of 1858 no reference can be found to the taking of an Oath as a necessary preliminary to graduation. But the Senatus of the United University introduced a modified form.

"Ego A. B. coram omniscio et omnipotente Deo, religionem Christianam, quousque in sancto Dei verbo palam proponitur, publice profiteor. Insuper almae matri academiae, cui ingenii culturam atque hos honores academicos debeo, me benevolentiam quam potero liberaliter relaturum sancte promitto. Ita me Deus adjuvet."

In 1866 a Royal Commission was appointed to inquire "what oaths, affirmations and declarations may be dispensed with" or altered; and reported, inter alia:—

"Aberdeen. Oath taken by Graduates in Arts and Medicine to be abolished."

No action followed on this, however, until, on 7th Oct., 1887, the University Court, on the motion of the Lord Rector, Emeritus-Professor Bain, approved the abolition of Graduation Oaths, retaining, however, a Declaration in the case of Medical Graduates.

1810. The List of Persons, etc., printed in 1856 (Pref., p. xv.) gives two entries—

"Milne, John, Aberdeen.
Milne, John Duguid, Aberdeen: Advocate, Aberdeen."

Neither in Album C nor in Album D is there any trace of two John Milne's in this class. The transcribed list of M.A.'s in Album E has apparently a blunder of the copyist.

"Joannes Milne, Aberdonensis, Joannes Milne, Aberdonensis,"
